

Well Listed ✓

The Well Listed Kit

AI prompts, templates and checklists for UK sellers on eBay, Vinted, Depop, Etsy, Amazon and TikTok Shop

90 prompts with worked examples · Version 1.0 · September 2026

Works with the free versions of ChatGPT, Claude, Gemini and Microsoft Copilot. Not affiliated with or endorsed by eBay, Vinted, Depop, Etsy, Amazon or TikTok. Platform rules change: always check the platform's own help pages. Nothing in this kit is legal, tax or financial advice. For your own use; please do not resell or share the files.

Contents

1. Module 00: Start here
2. Module 01: The Listing Brief
3. Module 02: Titles
4. Module 03: Descriptions and condition
5. Module 04: Keywords, tags and item specifics
6. Module 05: Photos
7. Module 06: Pricing
8. Module 07: Buyer messages
9. Module 08: Video and TikTok Shop
10. Module 09: Rule checker
11. Module 10: Batch workflow
12. Module 11: Worked examples
13. Module 12: Platform cheatsheet

Prefer copying prompts on your phone? Open prompt-library.html from your download: every prompt has a copy button and a search box.

Module 00: Start here

Quick start: your first listing in 5 minutes

You do not need to read this guide first. Pick one item, like a jumper, and do this:

1. Minute 1. Open ChatGPT, Claude, Gemini or Copilot on your phone (free versions are fine). Start a new chat.
2. Minutes 2 and 3. Copy the all-in-one prompt for your platform (A01 Vinted is below, A02 to A06 follow). Fill in the [BRACKETS] with the item in front of you: read the labels, measure it flat, and write each flaw as where, what and how big. If you do not know something, write "not sure".
3. Minute 4. Send it. Anything missing comes back as [CHECK: ...]. Find the fact or delete the line.
4. Minute 5. Read the result next to the item. If every word is true, paste it into the app and post.

That is the whole method: facts in, no guessing, you check before you post. The rest of the kit goes deeper when you want more control.

A01 All-in-one Vinted listing

Use it when: You want a Vinted title, description and field values in one go. Paste this:

Write a Vinted listing in UK English using ONLY these facts.

What it is: [E.G. JUMPER]

Brand: [BRAND OR "UNBRANDED"]

Size on label: [E.G. 12, OR KIDS: AGE 5 TO 6 YEARS, 116 CM]

Measurements, laid flat (cm): [E.G. PIT TO PIT 51, LENGTH 63]

Colour: [COLOUR]

Material (from the label): [MATERIAL OR "NOT SURE"]

Condition: [NEW WITH TAGS / NEW WITHOUT TAGS / VERY GOOD / GOOD / SATISFACTORY]

Flaws (where, what, how big): [FLAWS OR "NONE FOUND"]

What I checked and found fine: [E.G. "NO HOLES, ZIP WORKS" OR "NOTHING CHECKED"]

Anything else true: [E.G. "SMOKE-FREE HOME" OR "NONE"]

Give me:

1. A title of 60 characters or fewer: brand, item, colour, size. No padding.
2. A description of 50 to 120 words: what it is, size and measurements, condition with every flaw, material. End with one line inviting questions.
3. Values for Vinted's fields: category, brand, size, condition, colour, material.

Rules:

- If a fact is missing, write [CHECK: what is missing]. Never guess.
- Keep every flaw exactly as serious as I wrote it.
- No hype words, emoji or exclamation marks.
- Do not say rare, vintage, genuine or new unless I did. No other brand names.
- No payment, returns or contact details.

What good output looks like for a grey Next jumper, size 12, measured 51, 63 and 58 cm, 60% acrylic and 40% wool, Good, light bobbling under both arms, checked: no holes or marks:

- Title: Next grey wool-blend jumper, size 12 (36)
- Description: Grey wool-blend jumper from Next, size 12. Measured flat: pit to pit 51 cm, length 63 cm, sleeve 58 cm. Good condition: light bobbling under both arms. I checked it over and found no holes or marks. 60% acrylic, 40% wool. Happy to answer any questions or send more photos if useful.

- Fields: Category: [CHECK: women's or men's? Then pick the closest jumper category you see]. Brand: Next. Size: 12. Condition: Good. Colour: Grey. Material: Acrylic, Wool.

Check before you post:

- Tap every field in the app yourself. Filters use the fields, not the text.
- Kids' clothes: crop out name tapes, names written on labels and school logos. For a bundle, use D09 instead.

A02 All-in-one eBay UK listing

Use it when: You want an eBay UK title, item specifics and description in one go. Paste this:

Write an eBay UK listing in UK English using ONLY these facts.

What it is: [ITEM]

Brand: [BRAND OR "UNBRANDED"]

Model, style or product number: [MODEL OR "NOT SURE"]

Size on label: [SIZE OR "NOT APPLICABLE"]

Measurements or dimensions (cm): [MEASUREMENTS]

Colour: [COLOUR]

Material: [MATERIAL OR "NOT SURE"]

Condition: [E.G. NEW WITH TAGS / PRE-OWNED: GOOD]

Flaws (where, what, how big): [FLAWS OR "NONE FOUND"]

Tested (electricals only): [WHAT YOU TESTED, OR "NOT TESTED"]

Included / not included: [LIST]

Postage: [SERVICE]

Give me:

1. Two titles, 80 characters or fewer including spaces, with the count. Brand and item type first, then the details a buyer would search. Only true words, no padding.
2. Item specifics as a two-column table. Leave any I have not given as [CHECK].
3. A description under 200 words: what it is, measurements, condition with every flaw on its own line, what is included, postage.

Rules:

- Missing facts become [CHECK: what is missing]. Never guess.
- Keep every flaw. Do not soften any.
- No hype words, emoji or exclamation marks. No other brand names.
- Do not say rare, vintage, genuine, new or fully working unless I did.
- Nothing about returns or buyers' rights (I set those in eBay).

Check before you post:

- Paste the title into eBay's title box and read its counter. AI tools miscount.

A03 All-in-one Depop listing

Use it when: You want a Depop description (first line doing the job of a title) plus hashtags in one go. Paste this:

Write a Depop listing in UK English using ONLY these facts.

What it is: [ITEM]

Brand: [BRAND OR "UNBRANDED"]

Size on label: [SIZE]

Measurements, laid flat (cm): [MEASUREMENTS]

Colour: [COLOUR]

Material: [MATERIAL OR "NOT SURE"]

Fit or style (only if true): [E.G. BOXY, CROPPED, 90S STYLE]

Era (only if you can back it up): [E.G. "1996 DATE ON LABEL" OR "UNKNOWN"]

Condition: [CONDITION]

Flaws (where, what, how big): [FLAWS OR "NONE FOUND"]

Give me one description under 800 characters, with the count:

1. First line: brand, item, colour, size and one honest style word. This acts as the title.
2. Two short lines on fit and details.
3. Measurements.
4. Condition with every flaw.
5. A last line of up to 5 relevant hashtags.

Rules:

- Missing facts become [CHECK: what is missing]. Never guess.
- Era words (90s, y2k, vintage) only if my era line supports them. Otherwise use "style" or leave them out.
- No hype, emoji strings or exclamation marks. No other brands in the text or hashtags.
- No payment or contact details.

Check before you post:

- Fill in Depop's category, brand, size and condition fields as well.

A04 All-in-one Etsy listing

Use it when: You make or sell handmade, vintage or craft supply items and want a title, tags and description in one go. Paste this:

Write an Etsy listing in UK English using ONLY these facts.

What it is: [ITEM]

Handmade, vintage or craft supply: [TYPE]

Who made it and how: [E.G. "I THROW AND GLAZE EACH ONE"]

AI used in the design or photos? [NO / YES, HOW]

Vintage only, age, proof and flaws: [E.G. "1970S, DATED BACKSTAMP, 2 MM RIM CHIP"]

Materials, all of them: [MATERIALS]

Size and weight: [DIMENSIONS]

Options and personalisation: [OPTIONS OR "NONE"]

Made to order or ready, dispatch time: [DETAILS]

Care: [CARE]

Safety text, copied exactly (see C11): [TEXT OR "NONE"]

Give me:

1. Two titles under 140 characters, with the count: readable phrases, not keyword lists.
2. 13 tags of 20 characters or fewer, with counts, then all 13 on one comma-separated line.
3. A description: two opening lines, then details, who made it, personalisation, dispatch, care, safety.

Rules:

- Missing facts become [CHECK: what is missing]. Never guess.
- Materials and safety text exactly as I wrote them (never "silver" for silver-plated).
- Hand words (handmade, hand-poured) only for steps I do by hand.
- If I used AI, one plain sentence saying how.
- No health claims (calming, healing, hypoallergenic), hype or exclamation marks.
- No other brands or characters. "Vintage" only for 20 years or more.
- No returns, refund or guarantee wording.

Check before you post:

- Count any tag close to 20 characters. Etsy will reject a longer one.
- Selling what you make usually makes you a trader. Never add "no returns" wording: check your policies with C10.

A05 All-in-one Amazon UK listing

Use it when: You are a brand owner or seller of new stock creating an Amazon UK product listing. Paste this:

Write an Amazon UK product listing in UK English using ONLY these facts.

Brand: [BRAND]

Product type: [PRODUCT]

Key features (only ones I can prove): [FEATURES]

Size, quantity or capacity: [DETAILS]

Colour: [COLOUR]

Materials: [MATERIALS]

What is in the box: [CONTENTS]

Care or use instructions: [DETAILS]

Is this a media product (books, music, video)? [YES / NO]

Give me:

1. A title of 75 characters or fewer including spaces (the rule for non-media categories from 27 July 2026), with the count. If it is a media product, write [CHECK: title limit for media in Seller Central] instead of guessing.
2. An Item Highlights line of 125 characters or fewer, with the count, adding details not in the title.
3. Up to 5 bullet points, each a short label and one or two plain sentences.
4. A product description of 100 to 200 words.
5. Backend search terms: lower case, spaces only, no words already used above, under 240 bytes.

Rules:

- Missing facts become [CHECK: what is missing]. Never guess.
- Title: no ! $? _ { } ^ ~ | unless in the brand name, and no word more than twice (small words excepted).
- No promotional or subjective words (best, sale, free delivery, guaranteed), no emoji.
- No health, medical or eco claims. No other brand names anywhere.

Check before you post:

- Check your category's style guide in Seller Central. Limits differ by category and change.

A06 All-in-one TikTok Shop UK listing

Use it when: You sell new stock or your own products on TikTok Shop UK and want a title, description and claims check in one go. Paste this:

Write a TikTok Shop UK product listing in UK English using ONLY these facts.

Brand (mine, or one I am authorised to sell): [BRAND]

Product type: [PRODUCT]

Material: [MATERIAL]

Key features (only ones I can prove): [FEATURES]

Size, quantity or capacity: [DETAILS]

Colour or variant: [COLOUR]

What is included: [CONTENTS]

Care instructions: [CARE OR "NONE"]

Give me:

1. Three titles: brand, product type, material, key feature, then size, colour or quantity. At least 15 characters. Show the count.
2. A description of at least 30 words: one opening line, 4 short feature lines, "What's included", "Size and specs", "Care".
3. A list of any words I should double-check because they could count as a claim.

Rules:

- Missing facts become [CHECK: what is missing]. Never guess.
- Titles: no symbols, emoji, promotions (sale, x% off), shop name, web address, or mention of TikTok or other platforms.
- No claims that it cures, treats, prevents or relieves anything. No weight loss claims.
- No "best", no comparisons with other brands, no fake urgency, no vague green claims.
- No other platforms, and nothing sending buyers elsewhere to pay.

Check before you post:

- Check the title maximum and your category rules in Seller Center.

Which prompt do I need?

I want to...	Use
List one item fast	A01 to A06 (above)
Kids' clothes, or a bundle of them	A01 with the age size, or D09 for a bundle (Module 03)
Turn scribbled notes or a voice note into facts	B01, B02 (Module 01)
A better title, or fix an old one	T01 to T06, T08 (Module 02)
A fuller description, condition grade or flaw wording	D01 to D10 (Module 03)
Item specifics, tags or hashtags	K01 to K04 (Module 04)
Plan or check my photos	PH01, PH02, PH04 (Module 05)
Price from sold listings	R01, R02, then R05 for offers (Module 06)
Reply to a buyer	M01 to M12 (Module 07), or templates/message-snippets.txt
Check a listing before posting	C01, then C02 to C07 for your platform (Module 09)
List 10 items in one sitting	W01, W03, W02 (Module 10)
Cross-list one item on another platform	W07 (Module 10)
Makers: an Etsy listing	A04, or T04, D04 and K02
Makers: safety text and label details	C11 (Module 09)
Makers: check an Etsy listing, AI use and returns wording	C05, then C10 (Module 09)
Makers: price something I make	R07 with your making costs (Module 06)

Module 11 shows six full examples from notes to buyer reply. Module 12 has every platform's limits, fees and rules on one page each.

Only sell second-hand on Vinted, eBay or Depop? You can skip Module 08 (video and TikTok Shop) and the Amazon, Etsy and TikTok Shop prompts, which are marked.

Make and sell your own products? Start with A04 (Etsy), then C11 for safety details and C10 for your returns wording. Selling what you make usually counts as trading, so buyers have more rights than with a private sale (Module 07).

How every prompt works

Generic AI output goes wrong because it is given too little, so it guesses: invented materials, wrong sizes, American spellings, "stunning vintage piece". Every prompt here works the same way:

1. Facts first, either in the A prompts' fill-in lines or in a Listing Brief (Module 01) that you fill in once and reuse everywhere.
2. Only those facts. Gaps come back as [CHECK: ...] instead of guesses.
3. UK English, UK sizes, the platform's limits, no hype, no misleading claims.

Each prompt has a two-digit ID, the same in this guide and in the library search (the letter is the module: A all-in-one, B brief, T titles, D descriptions, K keywords, PH photos, R pricing, M messages, V video, C checks, W workflow), a "Use it when" line, the prompt, usually an example for an invented item, and a short check list. Replace everything in [SQUARE BRACKETS] before you send.

Which AI tool? Every prompt works in the free versions of ChatGPT, Claude, Gemini and Microsoft Copilot, with no plugins or browsing. Use the one you have. Start a new chat per item or batch, paste the whole prompt, and if it gets something wrong, say so: "The size is 14, not 12. Rewrite using only my facts." The platforms' own AI helpers (eBay and Depop can draft from a photo, Amazon offers listing tools to UK sellers) follow the same rule: check every word, or tidy their draft with D10.

Privacy: items yes, people no. Never paste buyers' names, usernames, addresses, phone numbers, emails, order numbers or screenshots of order pages, or your own bank details or home address. Replace a buyer's details with [BUYER]. Check your AI tool's data settings too.

The download also has prompt-library.html (every prompt, searchable, with copy buttons, works offline on your phone), all-prompts.txt and a templates folder (Listing Brief, stock and pricing tracker, buyer replies, photo shot lists).

The golden rules

1. Only true words. If you cannot back it up, leave it out. That includes "rare", "vintage", "genuine", "new" and "fully working".
2. Every flaw: where, what, how big, which photo. Between two condition grades, pick the lower one.
3. Measurements over sizes for clothing.
4. UK English and UK sizes. Jumper, trousers, trainers, handbag, postage.
5. Only the item's own brand. No "Zara style", no "not Nike".
6. Keep it on the platform. No off-platform payments, no contact details.
7. Respect buyers' rights. Never write anything that takes away a legal right or the platform's buyer protection. Our summaries of UK law are practical guidance, not legal advice.
8. Rules change. Check the current rule in the platform's help pages. Module 12 has the links.
9. You are the editor. The AI drafts. You check every word against the item before you post.

If something goes wrong

Problem	Reply to the AI
It invented a detail	"Remove anything not in my facts. Use [CHECK: ...] for gaps."
American spellings crept in	"Rewrite in UK English."
Title too long	"Cut to [LIMIT] characters, keeping brand and item type first." Then check in the listing form
Too gushing	"Plain and factual. No hype words, no exclamation marks."
It forgot the rules in a long chat	Start a new chat and paste the full prompt again
The free version hit its limit	Try later, or switch to another free tool

The Well Listed Kit is an independent guide for UK sellers. We are not affiliated with or endorsed by eBay, Vinted, Amazon, Etsy, Depop, TikTok or any AI tool provider. Nothing in this kit is legal, tax or financial advice. Platform rules and limits change: check the current rule in each platform's help pages.

Module 01: The Listing Brief

The Listing Brief is a short block of facts about one item. You fill it in once, save it in your notes app, and paste it into any prompt in this kit. An AI tool can only be as accurate as what you give it: "blue jumper, good condition" gets guesses, a proper brief leaves nothing to guess.

How to fill in a brief (about 2 minutes)

1. Have the item and a tape measure in front of you.
2. Copy the brief that matches your item (general, or a category version below).
3. Fill in what you know. Blank is better than wrong. A blank becomes a [CHECK: ...] you can fix. A wrong line becomes a "not as described" return.
4. Write flaws plainly: where, what, how big. "Small pale mark on left cuff, about 5 mm" is perfect.

A brief is about the item, never about people. No buyer names, addresses or order details.

The master Listing Brief (general)

LISTING BRIEF

Platform(s): [EBAY UK / VINTED / DEPOP / ETSY / AMAZON UK / TIKTOK SHOP]

What it is (plain words):

Brand / maker:

Model, style name or product number:

Size (as on the label):

Measurements (cm):

Colour:

Material (from the label):

Condition: New with tags / New without tags / Excellent / Very good / Good / Fair

Flaws (where, what, how big):

Included (box, cables, dust bag, spare buttons):

Not included:

Age or era (only if known):

Smoke-free / pet-free home (only if true):

Postage (service and who pays):

Price I want:

Lowest I will accept (private, never shared):

Anything else a buyer would ask:

About the condition line: this is our honest six-step scale (Module 03 explains each grade). Platforms use their own names, so you pick the nearest match when you list. Vinted's lowest option, for example, is "Satisfactory".

Every prompt that writes buyer-facing copy is told never to reveal your lowest price.

Category extras

The master brief works for anything. For these categories, add the extra lines buyers ask about most (or ask B05 to build a brief for your own category).

Clothing, shoes and accessories. Measurements beat sizes: a size 12 from 2024 is not a size 12 from 1985.

CLOTHING EXTRAS

Size on label (UK / EU / US as printed):

Measurements, laid flat (cm):

Pit to pit (armpit seam to armpit seam):

Length (top of shoulder by the collar to hem):

Sleeve (shoulder seam to cuff):

Waist (straight across; say if doubled):

Inside leg (crotch seam to hem):

Fabric (copy the care label, e.g. 60% acrylic, 40% wool):

Fit / cut (e.g. oversized, cropped, high waisted):

Tags attached? (yes / no / cut label):

Era (only if known: "tag style suggests 1990s" is fine, a guessed year is not):

Children's clothing and shoes. Parents buy by age size and height, and bundles are common (use D09 for those).

CHILDREN'S CLOTHING EXTRAS

Age size on label, written with "to" (e.g. 5 to 6 years):

Height or weight on label, if printed (e.g. 116 cm):

Girls', boys' or not stated on the label:

Shoe size (UK child sizes run up to 13, then restart at adult 1: copy the label):

Wear points checked (knees, cuffs, elbows, toes, bobbling after washing):

Names written in or name tapes (removed? covered in photos?):

Cords, drawstrings or small parts (e.g. hood cords, toggles, poppers):

Before you photograph kids' clothes, cover or crop name tapes, names written on labels and school logos: they identify a child. School uniform with a logo, nightwear, cords on hoods and used safety items (car seats, cycle helmets) can have extra safety rules or platform limits. Check the platform's help pages and GOV.UK before listing them.

Electronics. Buyers want to know it works, what comes with it, and whether anything is locked.

ELECTRONICS EXTRAS

Exact model name and number (label or settings screen):

Tested? How? (e.g. "powered on, Wi-Fi connected, played a video for 10 minutes"):

Not tested (e.g. "Bluetooth not tested"):

Faults or quirks:

Battery health (figure if shown, or "not checked"):

Factory reset and accounts removed? (yes / no):

Network lock (phones: unlocked / locked / not checked):

Never write "fully working" unless you tested every function. "Tested and working: power, screen, Wi-Fi. Not tested: Bluetooth" is honest and protects you.

Books, music and media. Only write "first edition" if the copyright page supports it, in its exact words.

MEDIA EXTRAS

Format (hardback, paperback, vinyl LP, CD, DVD, game):

Edition, printing and year of this copy (copyright page or label):

ISBN / catalogue number:

Region (DVD, Blu-ray, games):

Signed or inscribed? (only if true, say where):

Flaws (foxing, inscriptions, stickers, creases, scratches, ring wear):

Tested? (e.g. "disc plays without skipping"):

Homeware. Run a fingertip round every rim and hold china up to the light: hairline cracks and tiny chips cause most homeware claims.

HOMEWARE EXTRAS

Maker's mark or backstamp (copy it exactly):

Pattern or range (only if marked or confirmed):

Dimensions (height, width, diameter, capacity):

Flaws (chips, crazing, hairline cracks, stains, wobble):

Oven / dishwasher safe? (only if the base or box says so):

Set or single? (how many pieces, all matching?):

Toys and collectables. "Rare" and "limited edition" only if the item or box says so. Collectors check.

TOYS AND COLLECTABLES EXTRAS

Name, set number or series (from the box or item):

Complete? (what is present, what is missing, pieces counted?):

Box and instructions (present, condition, sealed or opened):

Batteries and tested? (lights, sounds, motors):

Age guidance on box (copy exactly):

Handmade. "Soothing" candles and "healing" crystals are health claims. Describe what it is made of, not what it does to the body.

HANDMADE EXTRAS

Who made it and how (which steps you do by hand, any production partner):

AI used in the design, pattern or photos? (no / yes, how):

Materials (every one, including findings, thread, finish, glaze):

Personalisation (what can change, character limits):

Made to order or ready to post, and making time:

Care instructions:

Allergy information (e.g. "nickel-free" only if your supplier confirms it):

Each piece varies? (e.g. hand-dyed):

Safety text (copied exactly from your label or supplier documents; C11 helps):

Your business name and address on the product or packaging (yes / no):

Product or batch reference, if you use one:

Post to Northern Ireland or the EU? (yes / no):

The B prompts

These build a brief from whatever you have: scribbled notes, a voice note, a photo description or a box label. The AI only organises facts and flags gaps. It does not write the listing yet.

B01 Messy notes to Listing Brief

Use it when: You have jotted a few scrappy notes about an item and want a tidy brief.

Paste this:

Turn my notes below into a Listing Brief for a UK second-hand seller, using these headings:

Platform(s), What it is, Brand, Model or style, Size, Measurements (cm), Colour, Material, Condition, Flaws, Included, Not included, Age or era, Postage, Price.

Rules:

- UK English.
- Use ONLY facts in my notes. Do not add, assume or improve anything.
- If a heading has no information, write [CHECK: what I need to find out], e.g. [CHECK: measure pit to pit in cm].
- Keep every flaw exactly as serious as I wrote it.
- If I gave inches, show both (e.g. 21 in / 53 cm).
- No sales language. This is a fact sheet.
- At the end, list the 3 most important [CHECK] items a buyer would ask about.

My notes:

[PASTE YOUR NOTES HERE]

What good output looks like for the notes "grey next jumper sz12 wool mix, bit bobbly under arms, vinted, want 12 quid":

- What it is: Jumper. Brand: Next. Size: 12. Colour: Grey.
- Model or style: [CHECK: crew neck, V-neck or roll neck?]
- Measurements (cm): [CHECK: pit to pit, length and sleeve, laid flat]
- Material: Wool mix [CHECK: exact composition from the care label]
- Flaws: Some bobbling under the arms
- Top 3 checks: fabric composition, measurements, any marks or holes besides the bobbling.

Check before you post:

- Make sure the AI has not quietly upgraded your words (for example "wool mix" becoming "merino").

B02 Voice note transcript to Listing Brief

Use it when: You talked about the item into your phone (quicker than typing) and have the transcript. Paste this:

Below is a transcript of me talking about an item I am selling in the UK. It will ramble. Turn it into a Listing Brief with these headings:

What it is, Brand, Model or style, Size, Measurements (cm), Colour, Material, Condition, Flaws, Included, Not included, Tested (how), Postage, Price.

Rules:

- UK English.
- Where I corrected myself ("no wait, it's a 14"), use the correction only.
- Use ONLY facts I said. Do not fill gaps with typical details.
- Missing or unclear facts become [CHECK: ...].
- Transcription often mishears brands and numbers. If one looks odd, keep it and add [CHECK: transcript said "X", confirm spelling].
- Keep every flaw at the same level of seriousness. No sales language.

Transcript:

[PASTE TRANSCRIPT HERE]

What good output looks like for "it's a Dualit toaster, um, four slice, cream, works fine, I did two rounds of toast, there's a little dent on the back, no, the side, left side":

- What it is: Four-slice toaster
- Brand: Dualit [CHECK: model number from the base label]
- Tested (how): Toasted two rounds of bread
- Flaws: Small dent on the left side [CHECK: size in mm or cm]

Check before you post:

- Check brand names and model numbers against the label. Transcription gets them wrong most often.

B03 Photo description to Listing Brief

Use it when: You want to describe what you can see, photo by photo, and turn it into a brief. The AI does not need to see images, so it works in any free tool. Paste this:

I will describe my item photo by photo. Build a UK Listing Brief from my descriptions only, with these headings:

What it is, Brand, Model or style, Size, Measurements (cm), Colour, Material, Condition, Flaws (with location), Labels and markings (exact wording), Included, Postage, Price.

Rules:

- UK English. No sales language.
- Use only what I describe. Do not guess brand, age, material or value.
- For each flaw, record where and how big. If I gave no size, add [CHECK: size of flaw].
- After the brief, list extra photos a buyer would expect that I have not described (care label, base stamp, flaw close-up).

Photo 1: [DESCRIBE]

Photo 2: [DESCRIBE]

Photo 3: [DESCRIBE]

Price: [PRICE]

Postage: [POSTAGE]

What good output looks like:

- What it is: Ceramic milk jug
- Labels and markings: base stamp reads "Denby, Made in England" (as described)
- Flaws: tiny glaze chip on the rim next to the spout [CHECK: size in mm]
- Extra photos to take: the rim chip next to a coin for scale, the base stamp in focus.

Check before you post:

- If you are not sure a mark is genuine, say what it reads rather than who made it.

B04 Gap finder: what a buyer will ask

Use it when: You have a brief and want to catch the questions buyers will message you about. Paste this:

Here is a Listing Brief for an item I am selling on [PLATFORM] in the UK. Act as a fussy buyer in this category.

1. List up to 8 questions a serious buyer would ask, most important first.
2. For each, say whether my brief answers it: Yes, No or Partly.
3. For every No or Partly, tell me what to check or measure and how, in plain words.

Do not write the listing. Do not invent answers. UK English, short lines.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for Levi's 501 jeans on eBay UK:

Question	Answered?	What to do
Real waist and inside leg?	Partly	Measure the waistband flat and double it. Inside leg from crotch seam to hem.
Wear at the crotch or hems?	No	Check the inner thighs and back hems. Photograph any thinning.

Check before you post:

- Add the answers to the brief itself, so every platform version gets them.

B05 Build my own category brief

Use it when: You sell a lot of one thing (bikes, prams, golf clubs, board games) and want a brief template made for it. Paste this:

I sell second-hand [CATEGORY] in the UK on [PLATFORM(S)]. Create a reusable Listing Brief template for this category, as a plain text block I can copy into my notes app.

Include:

1. The general fields: platform, what it is, brand, model, size or dimensions, colour, material, condition, flaws, included, postage, price, lowest I will accept (private).
2. Up to 10 extra fields buyers of this category care about, each with a hint on where to find the fact, e.g. "frame size (printed on the seat tube)".
3. A short "safety and legal" list of things I should check before selling this category in the UK, written as questions for me to check in the platform's help pages. Do not state rules as fact.

UK English, plain words, no sales language.

Check before you post:

- Some categories are restricted or banned on some platforms. Check the prohibited items page before listing.

B06 Label or box text to Listing Brief

Use it when: You have a new or boxed item, or a clear product label, and want the facts copied off it accurately. Paste this:

Below is text I copied from the box, label or manual of an item I am selling in the UK. Extract a Listing Brief with these headings:

What it is, Brand, Model / product number, Specification, Colour, Material, Dimensions, In the box, Safety or age warnings, Condition, Flaws, Postage, Price.

Rules:

- UK English.
- Copy specifications exactly. Do not round, convert or tidy numbers.
- Copy safety warnings and age guidance word for word.
- Leave marketing claims (e.g. "clinically proven") out of the brief. List them separately under "Box claims left out" so I can decide.
- Condition, flaws, postage and price are not on the box: write [CHECK: ...] unless I give them below.

Box or label text:

[PASTE TEXT HERE]

My extra details (condition, flaws, whether opened, postage, price):

[ADD DETAILS]

What good output looks like:

- In the box: 1 handle, 1 brush head, 1 charging base
- Condition: New, box opened to check contents, brush head still sealed
- Box claims left out: "removes up to 100% more plaque". A manufacturer claim: leave it out unless you are the brand and can support it.

Check before you post:

- Check whether the category has hygiene rules on the platform. Opened personal care items often do.

B07 Brief tidy-up and consistency check

Use it when: Your brief is filled in and you want a sanity check before running the title and description prompts. Paste this:

Check my Listing Brief for a UK [PLATFORM] listing. Do not rewrite it into a listing.

Report, in this order:

1. Contradictions (e.g. condition "Excellent" but flaws that sound like "Good").
2. Vague wording a buyer could dispute (e.g. "small mark" with no location or size), with a clearer version using only my facts.
3. Missing facts buyers in this category expect, as [CHECK: ...] lines.
4. Risky claims ("rare", "genuine", "fully working", "vintage" without an era, health claims), one line each on why.
5. US spellings or sizes to change.

UK English, short bullet points. Do not invent facts to fix problems. Ask me instead.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for a Radley handbag:

- Contradiction: condition "Excellent" but "corners rubbed through to the lining". That is nearer Good or Fair.
- Risky claim: "100% genuine": only with proof (receipt, bought from the brand). Otherwise state the brand and show the labels.
- US to UK: "purse" to "handbag".

Check before you post:

- Fix contradictions in the brief itself so every platform version inherits the fix.

Next: Module 02 for titles, 03 for descriptions and 04 for keywords, tags and item specifics.

Module 02: Titles

The title is what search matches, and on a phone it is often the only text a buyer reads before tapping. A good title is not clever. It is the words a buyer would type, in the order they would type them, with nothing untrue and nothing wasted.

Every prompt here starts from your Listing Brief (Module 01).

Title limits at a glance

We checked these in September 2026. Limits change, so check the current rule in the platform's help pages. Module 12 has the sources.

Platform	Title limit	Worth knowing
eBay UK	80 characters	Front-load brand and item type. No unrelated brand names
Vinted	No confirmed limit. Check the listing form	Brand, size, colour and condition have their own fields, which power the filters
Depop	No separate title: the first line of the description acts as one	Description commonly quoted as 1,000 characters
Etsy	140 characters	A readable phrase first, not a keyword list
Amazon UK	75 characters in all categories except media, from 27 July 2026	No ! $? _ { } ^ ~ unless in the brand name. No word more than twice. New 125-character Item Highlights field
TikTok Shop UK	At least 15 characters. Maximum commonly quoted as 255	No promotions, shop name, web address, platform names or symbols

Spaces and punctuation count as characters everywhere.

Title formulas

Use these as a starting order. Swap it if your buyers search differently (collectors often search set number first).

Platform and category	Formula
eBay: clothing	Brand + Item type + Style + Colour + Material + Size
eBay: shoes	Brand + Model + Shoe type + Colour + UK size
eBay: electronics	Brand + Model name + Model number + Capacity + Colour + (Unlocked / Boxed)
eBay: books	Title + Author + Format + (Edition, only if confirmed) + Year of this copy
eBay: homeware and toys	Maker + Range, name or set number + Item type + Colour or size + (Complete / Boxed)
Vinted and Depop	Brand + Item type + Colour + Size + (one true style word, e.g. "oversized")
Etsy	What it is in plain words + Main material + Key feature + (Personalisation). Vintage: era only if you can support it
Amazon and TikTok Shop	Brand + Product type + Key feature or material + Size or quantity + Colour

Mistakes that cost you: hype ("Stunning", "L@@K"), unsupported claims ("Rare", "Vintage", "Brand new" when it is not), other brands ("Zara style", "not Nike"), US words ("pants", "sweater", "sneakers", "purse"), bare shoe sizes ("8" instead of "UK 8"), and repeated words ("Dress Midi Dress Summer Dress"). Flaws belong in the description, not the title.

The T prompts

T01 eBay UK title

Use it when: You are listing on eBay UK and want a title that uses the 80 characters well without padding. Paste this:

Write 3 eBay UK titles for the item in my Listing Brief below.

- Put the words a UK buyer would search first: brand, item type, then the most useful details (model, style, colour, material, size).
- 80 characters or fewer including spaces. Show the count after each.
- Use the space for true, searchable details from the brief. If you run out of true details, stop. Do not pad.

Rules:

- UK English and UK sizes ("UK 8" for shoes, "trousers" not "pants").
 - Use ONLY facts in my brief. If a key search word is missing (e.g. model number), write [CHECK: model number] and tell me.
 - No hype words, exclamation marks, emoji or whole words in capitals.
 - No rare, vintage, genuine, new or limited edition unless the brief supports it.
- No other brand names. No repeated words.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for a brief that says: Next, women's jumper, crew neck, grey, 60% acrylic and 40% wool, size 12, light bobbling under both arms:

1. Next Womens Grey Wool Blend Crew Neck Jumper Size 12 (52)
2. Next Grey Crew Neck Jumper Womens Size 12 Acrylic Wool Blend (60)
3. Next Womens Jumper Grey Crew Neck Wool Blend UK Size 12 (55)

Every word is in the brief. It does not reach 80 characters because there are no more true details to add, and that is fine. The bobbling goes in the description.

Check before you post:

- Paste the title into eBay's title box. AI tools often miscount.
- If a word like "Long Sleeve" is true and buyers search it, add it to the brief first, then to the title.

T02 Vinted title

Use it when: You are listing clothes, shoes, accessories or homeware on Vinted. Paste this:

Write 3 Vinted titles for the item in my Listing Brief below.

- Short and clear: brand, item type, colour, size, plus one style word buyers use if it is true (e.g. oversized, cropped, wide leg).
- 60 characters or fewer, so it reads well in the app. Show the count after each.

Rules:

- UK English and UK sizes.
- Use ONLY facts in my brief. Write [CHECK: ...] if something important is missing.
- No hype words, emoji, exclamation marks, or price words ("bundle deal").
- No rare, vintage, genuine or new unless the brief supports it. No other brand names.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for black Levi's 501 jeans, W30 L32, straight leg, button fly (checked), faded at the knees:

1. Levi's 501 Black Straight Leg Jeans W30 L32 (43)
2. Levi's 501 Jeans Black W30 L32 Button Fly (41)

Check before you post:

- Fill in Vinted's brand, size, colour and condition fields too. They power the filters.

T03 Depop opening line (acts as the title)

Use it when: You are listing on Depop, where the first words of the description do the job of a title. Paste this:

Write 3 options for the opening line of a Depop listing for the item in my Listing Brief below. It works as the title, so it must say what the item is straight away.

- Brand and item type first, then colour, size and one or two style words buyers search (e.g. y2k, 90s, grunge) ONLY if they honestly fit my brief.
- One line each, under about 60 characters. Show the count. No hashtags in this line.

Rules:

- UK English and UK sizes.
- Use ONLY facts in my brief. Write [CHECK: ...] for missing key facts.
- An era word (90s, y2k) must be backed by the brief. If not, use "90s style" or leave it out, and tell me.
- No hype, emoji or exclamation marks. No other brand names.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for a brown suede Topshop jacket, size 10, button front, boxy fit, tag style suggests late 1990s (not confirmed):

1. Topshop brown suede jacket, size 10, 90s style (46)
2. Brown suede Topshop jacket UK 10, button front (46)
3. Topshop suede jacket in brown, size 10, boxy fit (48)

"90s style", not "90s", because the era is not confirmed.

Check before you post:

- The opening line matches what is in the photos.

T04 Etsy title

Use it when: You are listing a handmade, vintage or craft supply item on Etsy. Paste this:

Write 3 Etsy titles for the item in my Listing Brief below.

- Start with a clear phrase saying what the item is, as a person would say it. Then the key details: main material, key feature, size, colour, personalisation if offered.
- Under 140 characters including spaces, ideally under 15 words. Show the character and word count.
- Each phrase adds a new detail. Do not repeat the same idea in different words.

Rules:

- UK English (personalised, colour, jewellery).
- Use ONLY facts in my brief. Write [CHECK: ...] for anything missing.
- No hype, no "best", no "perfect gift" unless the brief says who it is for.
- "Vintage" only if the brief says at least 20 years old (check Etsy's current rule).
- No health or wellbeing claims. No other brands or trademarked characters.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for a handmade sterling silver stacking ring, hammered finish, thin band, UK sizes J to Q:

1. Hammered Sterling Silver Stacking Ring, Handmade Thin Band, UK Sizes J to Q (75 characters, 13 words)
2. Sterling Silver Stacking Ring with Hammered Finish, Handmade Thin Band (70 characters, 10 words)

Check before you post:

- "Sterling silver" is a legal description. Use it only for 925 silver, and check whether your item needs hallmarking in the UK.
- Put extra search words in the 13 tags (K02), not the title.

T05 Amazon UK title and Item Highlights

Use it when: You are a brand owner or seller of new stock creating an Amazon UK product listing. Skip this if you only sell second-hand. Paste this:

Write an Amazon UK product title and an Item Highlights line for the product in my Listing Brief below.

Title:

- Brand, product type, key feature, size or quantity, colour (unless my category style guide says otherwise).
- 75 characters or fewer including spaces (the rule for all categories except media from 27 July 2026). Show the count.
- Capitalise each word except short ones (and, or, for, the, with). Numbers as digits.

Item Highlights: up to 125 characters of useful details that did not fit in the title, no repeats. Show the count.

Rules:

- UK English. Use ONLY facts in my brief. Write [CHECK: ...] for anything missing.
- No ! $? _ { } ^ ~ | unless in the brand name. No emoji. No word more than twice (small words excepted).
- No promotional or subjective words (best, top quality, free delivery, sale).
- No health, medical or eco claims unless the brief gives evidence. No other brands.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for an invented "Hartwell Home" set of 4 linen napkins, 45 cm square, sage green, 100% linen, machine washable at 40 degrees, hemmed edges:

- Title: Hartwell Home Linen Napkins Set of 4, 45 x 45 cm, Sage Green (60)
- Item Highlights: 100% linen, machine washable at 40 degrees, hemmed edges (56)

Check before you post:

- Check your category's style guide in Seller Central. Title rules differ by category.

T06 TikTok Shop UK product title

Use it when: You are listing a product in TikTok Shop UK. Skip this if you only sell second-hand on the resale apps. Paste this:

Write 3 TikTok Shop UK product titles for the product in my Listing Brief below.

- Brand, product type, material, the one or two features that matter most, then size, colour or quantity.
- Clear at a glance on a phone. At least 15 characters, aim for 60 to 100. Show the count. I will check the current maximum in Seller Center.

Rules:

- UK English. Use ONLY facts in my brief. Write [CHECK: ...] for anything missing.
- No hype or trend words (viral, best seller, must have), emoji, symbols, exclamation marks or whole words in capitals.
- Do not mention TikTok or any other platform, my shop name or a web address.
- No price, discount or urgency words (sale, 20% off, only 2 left).
- No claims that it cures, treats, prevents or relieves anything, and no weight loss claims.
- Use the brand only if it is mine or I am authorised to sell it. No other brands.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for an invented "Brookfield" stainless steel insulated water bottle, 750 ml, double wall, matte black:

1. Brookfield 750ml Insulated Water Bottle, Double Wall Stainless Steel, Black (75)
2. Brookfield Water Bottle 750ml, Stainless Steel, Insulated, Matte Black Finish (77)

Check before you post:

- Claims like "leakproof" or "keeps drinks cold for 24 hours" must be in your product spec and tested. Leave them out if not.

T07 Title tester: which version is clearest?

Use it when: You have 2 to 5 title ideas and want an honest, buyer's-eye comparison.

Paste this:

I am choosing a title for a [PLATFORM] UK listing. Here are my options and my Listing Brief.

For each title:

1. Count the characters including spaces. Say if it is over [LIMIT].
2. Give 3 short searches a UK buyer would likely type for this item, and say which ones each title matches.
3. Flag anything not in the brief, any hype, repeated words, or US spellings or sizes.
4. Say whether the first 40 characters (roughly what shows on a phone) make it clear what the item is.

Then recommend one in two lines. If you suggest a better version, use only facts from the brief. UK English.

Titles:

[PASTE TITLE 1]
[PASTE TITLE 2]
[PASTE TITLE 3]

My Listing Brief:
[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for three eBay titles for a Nintendo Switch Lite:

Title	Count	Matches "switch lite grey"	First 40 clear?	Issues
1	78	Yes	Yes	None
2	84	Yes	Yes	Over 80
3	61	Yes	No, starts "Amazing condition"	Hype, wasted space

The Well Listed Kit · page 35 of 141

Recommendation: Title 1. Brand and model first, within the limit.

Check before you post:

- The platform's own search suggestions (start typing in the search bar) are a better guide than the AI's guesses. After posting, search as a buyer would and change one thing at a time.

T08 Title fixer: too long, too vague or too spammy

Use it when: You already have a title (from an old listing or a generic AI tool) and it needs fixing. Paste this:

Fix this [PLATFORM] UK listing title. The limit is [LIMIT] characters.

My current title:

[PASTE TITLE]

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

1. List what is wrong: over the limit, hype, repeated words, US spellings or sizes, unsupported claims, other brand names, wasted words.
2. Write 2 fixed versions within the limit, with character counts.
3. Use only facts from the brief. If the old title claims something the brief does not support, remove it and tell me what and why.

UK English. No hype, emoji or exclamation marks.

What good output looks like for "STUNNING!!! Vintage RARE Mulberry Style Leather Purse Bag Bag Brown L@@K" on an unbranded brown leather shoulder bag with a top zip and two handles:

- Wrong: capitals and exclamation marks, "Stunning" and "L@@K" are hype, "Vintage" and "Rare" are not in the brief, "Mulberry Style" names another brand, "Bag" is repeated, "Purse" is a US word here.
- Fixed: Brown Leather Shoulder Handbag, Top Zip, Two Handles, Unbranded (63)

Check before you post:

- If the item has no brand label, do not guess one. "Unbranded" is honest.
- Update the description so it tells the same story as the new title.

Module 03: Descriptions and condition

The title gets the tap. The description turns "that looks nice" into "I know exactly what I am getting", and it is your best protection against "not as described" claims. A good second-hand description is not long. It is complete.

The order that works on every platform: what it is, size and measurements, condition with every flaw, details and what is included, then postage. Short lines: most buyers read on a phone.

The honest condition grading scale

Use this scale in your brief, then pick the nearest option in the platform's own condition list. Platforms name and define their options differently, and change them, so read the platform's own definitions when you choose and check the current options in its help pages.

Our grade	What it means	Typical flaws, all described	Nearest Vinted option
New with tags	Unworn, unused, tags attached	None	New with tags
New without tags	Unworn, unused, no tags	None, apart from possible shop marks	New without tags
Excellent	Used, but hard to tell	Very faint signs of use	Very good
Very good	Light, normal signs of use	Light bobbling, faint fading, tiny marks	Very good
Good	Clearly used, fully usable	Visible bobbling, small marks, light wear at cuffs or corners, photographed	Good
Fair	Well used, flaws are obvious	Stains, holes, heavy wear, faults, photographed	Satisfactory

eBay's pre-owned options and their definitions vary by category. Read the definitions shown in the listing form.

Two rules:

- Between two grades, pick the lower one. A buyer who gets better than expected is happy. One who gets worse opens a case.
- The grade never replaces the flaw list. "Good" is an opinion. "Two small pulls on the back, about 3 mm each, see photo 6" is a fact.

Flaw wording that protects you

Describe every flaw with location, type, size and photo.

Weak (invites disputes)	Strong (hard to dispute)
Minor wear	Light rubbing on both heels, about 1 cm, see photo 5
Small mark	Pale grey mark on the front, below the left pocket, about 5 mm. Not tested whether it washes out
A few scratches	Three fine scratches on the back casing, only visible at an angle. Screen has no scratches

- Say what you checked: "No holes or stains that I can see" is honest. "Perfect" is a promise.
- Say what you did not check: "Not tested with a charger".
- Do not soften: "barely noticeable" is your opinion. Give the size and let the buyer decide.

"Sold as seen" does not cover a wrong description. Every seller must describe items accurately, business sellers cannot remove buyers' legal rights, and platform buyer protection applies on top (Module 07 explains). An accurate description is the protection, not a disclaimer. (This is practical guidance, not legal advice. Module 07 has the detail and where to check it.)

The D prompts

D01 eBay UK description

Use it when: You have a title and want a clear, complete eBay UK description. Paste this:

Write an eBay UK item description for the item in my Listing Brief below.

Order:

1. One opening line: brand, item, key detail.
2. Size and measurements in cm ("measured flat" for clothing).
3. Condition: the grade, then every flaw on its own line with location, size and photo number if given.
4. Details: material, features, what is included and not included.
5. Postage: only what is in my brief.

Rules:

- UK English. Short lines. Under 200 words.
- Use ONLY facts in my brief. Missing facts become [CHECK: ...]. Never invent measurements, materials, dates or test results.
- Include every flaw. Do not soften or leave any out.
- No hype words, exclamation marks or emoji.
- No rare, vintage, genuine, fully working, new or smoke-free unless the brief says so.
- Do not reveal my lowest price. Nothing about returns (I set those in eBay).

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for the Next jumper (grey, women's, crew neck, size 12, 60% acrylic and 40% wool, measured, light bobbling under both arms, checked: no holes, stains or pulls, sent in a postal bag):

Next women's grey wool-blend jumper, size 12.

Measured flat: pit to pit 51 cm, length 63 cm, sleeve 58 cm.

Condition: Good, pre-owned. Light bobbling under both arms (photo 5). No holes, stains or pulls that I can see.

Details: 60% acrylic, 40% wool (care label).

Postage: Folded and sent in a postal bag.

Check before you post:

- Every flaw in the text is in a photo, and every flaw in a photo is in the text.
- eBay's condition option matches the grade in the description.

D02 Vinted description

Use it when: You are listing on Vinted and want a short, friendly, accurate description.

Paste this:

Write a Vinted description for the item in my Listing Brief below.

Style: short, friendly and plain, like someone selling from their own wardrobe. Use "I" or neutral wording. 50 to 120 words.

Order:

1. What it is, in one line.
2. Label size and measurements in cm (measured flat).
3. Condition, then every flaw with location and size.
4. Material and useful details (fit, pockets, lining).
5. One line inviting questions.

Rules:

- UK English. Use ONLY facts in my brief. Missing facts become [CHECK: ...].
- Every flaw included, at the same level of seriousness.
- No hype words, exclamation marks or emoji strings.
- No payment, contact details or "no returns" lines. No other brand names.
- Do not reveal my lowest price.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for black Levi's 501 jeans, W30 L32, 100% cotton, button fly, faded on both knees, checked: no rips or holes:

Black Levi's 501 straight leg jeans, label size W30 L32. Measured flat: waist 39 cm (78 cm doubled), inside leg 81 cm. Good condition: faded to a washed charcoal on both knees (photo 4). No rips or holes. 100% cotton, button fly. Happy to answer questions or send more photos.

Check before you post:

- Fill in Vinted's brand, size, colour, condition and material fields. They matter as much as the text.

D03 Depop description

Use it when: You are listing on Depop and want a description that works as both title and details. Paste this:

Write a Depop description for the item in my Listing Brief below.

Order:

1. First line: brand, item type, colour, size and one honest style word. This acts as the title.
2. Two or three short lines on fit and style, from my brief only.
3. Measurements in cm (measured flat).
4. Condition with every flaw, location and size.
5. A last line of up to 5 relevant hashtags.

Keep it under 800 characters (Depop's limit is commonly quoted as 1,000; I will check the app). Show the count.

Rules:

- UK English. Use ONLY facts in my brief. Missing facts become [CHECK: ...].
- Era words (y2k, 90s, vintage) only if the brief supports them. Otherwise "90s style" or leave them out.
- No hype, emoji spam or exclamation marks. No other brands in the text or hashtags.
- No payment or contact details.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for the brown suede Topshop jacket, size 10:

Topshop brown suede jacket, size 10, 90s style

Boxy, cropped fit, four-button front. Measured flat: pit to pit 52 cm, length 58 cm.
Good condition: light darkening on both cuffs, small scuff on the back hem, about 1 cm (photo 6).

#suedejacket #brownsuede #topshop #90sstyle #croppedjacket

Check before you post:

- Fill in Depop's category, size, brand and condition fields as well.

D04 Etsy description (handmade or vintage)

Use it when: You sell handmade or vintage items on Etsy and need a description that is warm but factual. Paste this:

Write an Etsy listing description for the item in my Listing Brief below.

Order:

1. Two opening lines: what it is and what makes it distinctive, from the brief only.
2. Details: every material, size and dimensions, colours, weight if relevant.
3. Who made it and how, in one line. If AI was used in the design, pattern or photos, one plain sentence saying so.
4. Personalisation: what can change and how to request it (skip if not offered).
5. Made to order or ready to post, and making time.
6. Care instructions, then my safety text word for word.
7. Vintage items only: era (as supported by the brief) and every flaw.

Rules:

- UK English. Warm, plain tone. Short paragraphs.
- Use ONLY facts in my brief. Missing facts become [CHECK: ...].
- Materials exactly as written. Do not upgrade "silver-plated" to "silver" or "cotton blend" to "cotton".
- Hand words (handmade, hand-poured, hand-thrown) only for steps my brief says I do by hand.
- No health, wellbeing or medical claims (calming, healing, detox, hypoallergenic) unless I give supplier evidence.
- No hype, no "perfect gift for everyone", no exclamation marks. No returns or refund wording.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for a soy wax candle in a 200 ml amber glass jar, fig scent, "I pour each one by hand", no AI used, no safety text given yet:

A soy wax candle in a 200 ml amber glass jar, scented with fig. Wax: soy wax [CHECK: exact wax name from your supplier]. Burn time: [CHECK: your tested burn time, or leave out]. Hand-poured by me, one at a time. Made to order, dispatched within 3 working days. Safety: [CHECK: paste the safety and allergen text from your label or fragrance supplier, word for word]

Check before you post:

- Candles, wax melts and other scented items often come with supplier label wording. Use C11 to turn your supplier's documents into the safety text.
- Dispatch times match your Etsy postage settings.

D05 Amazon UK bullet points and description

Use it when: You are a brand owner or seller of new stock writing Amazon UK bullets and a product description. Skip this if you only sell second-hand. Paste this:

Write Amazon UK bullet points and a product description for the product in my Listing Brief below.

Bullets:

- Up to 5. Each starts with a short capitalised label and a colon (e.g. "MATERIAL:"), then one or two plain sentences.
- Order: what it is and size, material, key feature, use or care, what is included.
- Each under about 250 characters. I will check my category style guide.

Description: 100 to 200 words, plain paragraphs, no HTML.

Rules:

- UK English. Use ONLY facts in my brief. Missing facts become [CHECK: ...].
- No promotional or subjective claims (best, top rated), prices, delivery or offer details, reviews, or refund and guarantee phrases.
- No health, medical or eco claims unless my brief gives the evidence.
- No special characters, emoji or other brands. Do not repeat the title word for word.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for the invented "Hartwell Home" linen napkins:

- SIZE AND SET: Four napkins, each 45 x 45 cm, in sage green.
- MATERIAL: 100% linen. Machine washable at 40 degrees.

Check before you post:

- Every fact matches your product specification and packaging exactly.

D06 Condition grader

Use it when: You are not sure which condition grade to choose, or which platform option matches. Paste this:

Help me choose an honest condition grade for an item I am selling on [PLATFORM] in the UK.

Scale: New with tags, New without tags, Excellent, Very good, Good, Fair.

- If the item sits between two grades, choose the lower one.
- Base the grade only on what I list. Do not assume or ignore any flaw.

Then:

1. Give the grade and a one-line reason.
2. Name the closest option in [PLATFORM]'s condition list, and remind me to read the platform's own definition first.
3. Write a one or two line condition summary listing each flaw with location and size.
4. List anything I should check or photograph to be sure.

UK English. No softening words (barely, hardly, tiny) unless I used them, and never without a size.

Item: [WHAT IT IS]

Flaws and wear: [LIST EVERY FLAW]

Tags attached? [YES / NO]

Used or worn? [HOW OFTEN, IF KNOWN]

What good output looks like for a Nike hoodie with light pilling on the cuffs, a faded and cracked logo print, and a bleach spot on the back, about 4 mm:

Grade: Good. The bleach spot is a permanent visible mark, so not Very good.

Closest Vinted option: Good (read Vinted's description first). Summary: Light pilling on both cuffs. Logo print faded with fine cracks. One bleach spot on the upper back, about 4 mm, see photo 6.

Check before you post:

- The grade and the description agree. A mismatch is a common cause of disputes.

D07 Flaw disclosure rewriter

Use it when: You wrote your flaws in a hurry and want them clear, specific and protective. Paste this:

Rewrite the flaws below so they are clear and specific for a UK [PLATFORM] listing. A buyer should know exactly what to expect.

For each flaw, one line with: what it is, where it is (left and right as worn or used, and say so), how big (mm or cm), how visible (only if I said), and the photo number if I gave one.

Rules:

- UK English.
- Do not make any flaw sound smaller than I described it. Do not remove any.
- Missing size, location or visibility becomes [CHECK: ...].
- Add one line of what I checked and found fine, only from my list below.
- No reassurance words ("perfect otherwise"). Just facts.

My flaws, as I wrote them:

[PASTE FLAWS]

Things I checked and found fine:

[E.G. NO HOLES, ZIP WORKS, NO ODOUR]

What good output looks like for "mark on the front, bit of fraying at the hem, zip a bit stiff":

- Pale mark on the front [CHECK: which side, and size in mm]
- Light fraying along the bottom hem [CHECK: length in cm]
- Zip works but is stiff to pull

Check before you post:

- Use the same flaw list on every platform you list on.

D08 Measurements block

Use it when: You want a neat measurements section for clothing, bags or shoes, and a reminder of what to measure. Paste this:

I am listing [ITEM TYPE] on [PLATFORM] in the UK.

Step 1: Tell me the 4 to 6 measurements buyers most want for this item, with one short line each on how to measure it flat.

Step 2: When I reply with my numbers, format them as:

- Heading: "Measurements (laid flat, in cm)", with the label size at the top
- One measurement per line
- Inches converted to cm, rounded to the nearest 0.5 cm, inches in brackets
- "Doubled" next to any doubled figure

UK English. Never estimate or invent a measurement. If one is missing, write [CHECK: measure X]. No fit advice unless I give it.

Check before you post:

- Measure buttoned and smoothed, not stretched, the same way every time. Say if the fabric stretches.

D09 Bundle and job lot description

Use it when: You are selling several items together (kids' clothes, a box of books, a job lot of mugs). Paste this:

Write a [PLATFORM] UK description for a bundle or job lot from my list below.

1. Opening line: what the bundle is, how many items, key shared details (e.g. "Bundle of 8 girls' tops, age 7 to 8 years").
2. A numbered list: one line per item with brand, item, size, condition and any flaw with location and size. Children's sizes as on the label, written "age 7 to 8 years", never a single guessed age.
3. What the bundle does NOT include (only if I say).
4. Parcel weight or size if I give it.

Rules:

- UK English. Use ONLY facts in my list. A line missing brand, size or condition gets [CHECK: ...].
- Flaws listed against the right item, never merged into "some wear".
- If condition varies, say so: "Condition varies from Very good to Fair, see each item".
- No hype, exclamation marks, "bargain" or price talk. Do not reveal my lowest price.

My list:

[ITEM 1: BRAND, ITEM, SIZE, CONDITION, FLAWS]

[ITEM 2: BRAND, ITEM, SIZE, CONDITION, FLAWS]

[ITEM 3: BRAND, ITEM, SIZE, CONDITION, FLAWS]

Parcel weight or size: [IF KNOWN]

What good output looks like for a Vinted bundle of kids' clothes:

Bundle of 4 boys' tops, age 5 to 6 years. Condition varies from Very good to Good, see each item.

1. Next navy long-sleeve top, age 5 to 6 years. Very good.
2. M&S grey hoodie, age 5 to 6 years. Good: bobbling on both cuffs. [CHECK: hood cord removed or still fitted?]
3. Frugi stripe T-shirt, age 5 to 6 years. Good: small faded mark on the front, about 1 cm.
4. George dinosaur T-shirt, [CHECK: age size on label]. Very good.

Check before you post:

- Count the items again before you post, and photograph them all together. A missing item is a common dispute.
- On Vinted, buyers often build their own bundle from separate listings, so decide whether one bundle listing or single listings suit you (check how bundles work in the app today). Cover name tapes in every photo.

D10 De-hype and UK-ify an AI description

Use it when: You have a description from a generic AI tool, a platform's AI helper or an old listing that sounds American, gushing or over-promising. Paste this:

Rewrite this listing description for a UK [PLATFORM] buyer.

Fix:

1. US spelling and words to UK (color to colour, pants to trousers, sweater to jumper, sneakers to trainers, zipper to zip).
2. US sizes to UK where my brief gives the UK size. Otherwise keep it and label it "US size".
3. Remove hype and filler (stunning, gorgeous, must have, timeless piece, exclamation marks, emoji).
4. Remove or flag with [CHECK: ...] any claim not supported by my brief.
5. Keep every flaw, with location and size. Keep it short.

Then list what you removed or flagged and why, in short bullet points.

Old description:

[PASTE OLD DESCRIPTION]

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for this old description: "OMG this gorgeous vintage sweater is a MUST HAVE!! Timeless piece in amazing condition, perfect color for fall. Fits true to size!"

Rewrite: Cream cable knit jumper, size M on label. Measured flat: pit to pit 55 cm, length 66 cm. Very good condition, light bobbling under the arms. [CHECK: fabric from the care label]

Removed: "Vintage" (no era in the brief), "amazing condition" (replaced with the grade and flaw), "fits true to size" (not in the brief), "fall" (US word), hype and exclamation marks.

Check before you post:

- If the AI removed a claim you know is true, add it back with the evidence (e.g. "receipt available").

Module 04: Keywords, tags and item specifics

Buyers do not only search. They tap filters: size, brand, colour, condition. If your fields are empty, you are missing from those results however good your title is.

This module covers eBay item specifics, Etsy's 13 tags, Depop's hashtags, Vinted's fields and Amazon's backend search terms. Module 12 has each platform's current limits and sources. Every prompt stays honest: only the item's own brand, no stuffing, no invented details.

What counts as keyword stuffing

Stuffing is packing a listing with words that do not honestly describe the item, or repeating words to game search. It can breach platform rules (eBay, for example, has a search and browse manipulation policy) and it looks spammy to buyers.

Stuffing (avoid)	Honest (fine)
"Not Zara, similar to Mango, like H&M"	The item's own brand only
"Dress dress midi dress summer dress"	"Midi dress" once, with real details
"Nike" on unbranded trainers	"White lace up trainers"
"Y2K 90s 80s vintage retro" on a 2022 top	"Y2K style" only if it honestly has that look
A hidden list of words at the end of a description	A short, useful description

Simple test: if a buyer searched that word, found your item and was annoyed, it should not be there.

UK words: say it the way UK buyers type it

Generic AI tools default to American words. Use the UK word in the title. Where both are searched, the other word can go once in tags, specifics or backend fields.

US word	UK word
Sweater	Jumper

US word	UK word
Pants	Trousers
Sneakers	Trainers
Purse	Handbag (a UK "purse" is a small wallet)
Vest	Waistcoat (a UK "vest" is an underwear top)
Zipper, cleats, stroller	Zip, football boots, pushchair
Diaper bag, comforter, flashlight	Changing bag, duvet, torch

The K prompts

K01 eBay UK item specifics

Use it when: You are listing on eBay UK and want every relevant item specific filled in accurately. Paste this:

I am listing on eBay UK in the category [CATEGORY]. Below are the item specifics fields eBay shows me, and my Listing Brief. Fill in each field using ONLY facts from the brief.

Rules:

- UK English and UK sizes.
- If the brief does not give the answer, write [CHECK: ...] and say where to find it (care label, base, settings menu).
- Never guess brand, material, model, year or country of manufacture.
- Use the simple words buyers filter by ("Grey", not "dove grey heather").
- Keep each value short (under 65 characters; I will check the form).
- No other brand names, hype or keywords that do not describe the item.
- Output a two-column table: Item specific | Value.

eBay's item specific fields for my category:

[PASTE THE FIELD NAMES FROM THE EBAY FORM]

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for the Next jumper:

Item specific	Value
Brand / Size / Colour	Next / 12 / Grey
Neckline / Material	Crew Neck / Acrylic, Wool
Country of manufacture	[CHECK: on the care label, or leave blank]

Check before you post:

- Copy the field names straight from the eBay form, so the AI works with the fields your category really has.
- Leave a field blank rather than guess. A wrong specific can lead to a "not as described" case.

K02 Etsy 13 tags

Use it when: You are listing on Etsy and want 13 honest, varied tags within the 20-character limit. Paste this:

Write 13 Etsy tags for the item in my Listing Brief below.

- Each tag 20 characters or fewer including spaces. Show the count for each.
- Multi-word phrases a UK buyer would type ("silver stacking ring", not just "ring").
- Cover different angles: what it is, material, style, colour, occasion or recipient (only if the brief supports it), personalisation if offered.
- Vary the wording. UK spellings (personalised, jewellery); a US spelling in one tag at most.

Rules:

- Use ONLY facts from my brief. No material, style or use the item does not have.
- No other brands, characters or celebrity names. No health or wellbeing words. No hype.
- "Vintage" only if the brief supports it and it meets Etsy's current rule.
- Output a numbered list, then all 13 on one comma-separated line.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for a handmade hammered sterling silver stacking ring:

silver stacking ring (20), hammered silver ring (20), sterling silver band (20), thin silver ring (16), minimalist ring (15), handmade silver ring (20), textured ring (13), dainty silver ring (18), everyday ring (13), 925 silver ring (15), simple stacking band (20), hand forged ring (16), womens silver ring (18)

Check before you post:

- "Hand forged" only if you forge it by hand. Every tag must be true.
- Fill in Etsy's attributes (colour, material, occasion) as well.

K03 Depop hashtags

Use it when: You are listing on Depop and want up to 5 relevant hashtags. Paste this:

Suggest 5 Depop hashtags for the item in my Listing Brief below, plus 3 spares, each with a one-line reason.

Rules:

- Depop allows up to 5 and asks for relevant words, brands and tags only. I will check the current limit in the app.
- Each hashtag honestly describes the item: type, its own brand, colour, material, fit or a style it really has.
- Style or era tags (y2k, 90s, grunge, cottagecore) only if the brief supports them. If unsure, leave them out and tell me.
- No other brands, trend tags that do not fit, or price tags.
- Lower case, no spaces, UK spelling (e.g. #jumper).

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for the brown suede Topshop jacket, 90s style:

#suedejacket (what it is), #topshop (its own brand), #brownsuede (colour and material), #90sstyle (style, era not claimed), #croppedjacket (the fit). Spares: #buttonfront, #womensjacket, #suede

Check before you post:

- Swap hashtags rather than going over the limit.

K04 Vinted fields and search words

Use it when: You are listing on Vinted and want every field filled in and the right search words in your title and description. Paste this:

I am listing on Vinted in the UK. Vinted uses structured fields, not free tags.

1. From my brief, give the value for each field: Category (the most specific path you can see, e.g. Women > Clothing > Jumpers), Brand, Size, Condition, Colour (a second colour only if clearly true), Material.
2. List 5 to 8 search words UK buyers would type for this item. Say which are already in my title or description, and where the missing ones could go naturally, once each.
3. Flag any word in my title or description that is not in the brief, or is another brand.

Rules: UK English and UK sizes. Use ONLY facts in my brief; missing facts become [CHECK: ...]. No repeated words or keyword lists. Category paths change, so tell me to pick the closest match I can see.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

My current title and description (if written):

[PASTE HERE]

What good output looks like for black Levi's 501 jeans, W30 L32:

- Fields: Category: Jeans > Straight fit [CHECK: men's or women's, from the label]. Brand: Levi's. Size: W30 L32. Condition: Good. Colour: Black. Material: Cotton.
- Search words: levis 501, black jeans, straight leg jeans (all in title). Faded black jeans: could go in the description as "faded to a washed charcoal".

Check before you post:

- Select the brand from Vinted's list where it exists, so brand filters find you.

K05 Amazon UK backend search terms

Use it when: You are a brand owner or seller filling in the backend search terms field on Amazon UK. Skip this if you only sell second-hand. Paste this:

Write backend search terms for my Amazon UK product listing.

Rules:

- The field is commonly quoted as 250 bytes (not characters; accented letters use more). Stay under 240 bytes and show the count. I will check Seller Central.
- Words separated by spaces. No commas or punctuation. Lower case.
- No word already in my title, Item Highlights or bullets (below), and no repeats within the field.
- Include synonyms, UK and US variants (e.g. jumper sweater), common misspellings, and uses only if my brief supports them.
- No other brand names, ASINs, temporary words (new, sale), subjective words (best) or offensive terms.
- Use ONLY facts from my brief. No materials, uses or features the product does not have.

My title, Item Highlights and bullets:

[PASTE THEM HERE]

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for the "Hartwell Home" linen napkins:

serviettes dinner fabric reusable washable dining kitchen flax natural textured square hemmed table setting (107 bytes)

Left out: "napkins", "linen", "sage" and "green" (in the title) and "tablecloth" (a different product).

Check before you post:

- Remove any term that would disappoint a buyer who searched it.

K06 Buyer search phrase finder (from what you see)

Use it when: You want to know how buyers search for your item, using the suggestions the platform's own search bar shows you. Paste this:

I am selling [ITEM] on [PLATFORM] in the UK. Below are the suggestions the platform's search bar showed me, and titles of a few sold listings I looked up myself.

Using ONLY these and my Listing Brief:

1. Group the phrases: what it is, brand and model, size, colour and material, style, condition.
2. Say which phrases honestly describe MY item. Ignore the rest.
3. Say where each fitting phrase should go: title, fields, tags or hashtags, or description.
4. Point out any US words and give the UK version.

UK English. Do not invent search data or say how popular a phrase is. No other brands.

Search bar suggestions I saw:

[PASTE SUGGESTIONS]

Sold listing titles I looked up:

[PASTE TITLES]

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

Check before you post:

- Copy suggestions and titles by hand. Do not use automated tools to collect data from platforms.

K07 Keyword stuffing checker

Use it when: You want a quick check that your title, tags, hashtags or search terms are honest and will not look like spam, on any platform. Paste this:

Check my [PLATFORM] UK listing for keyword stuffing and misleading search words.

Look for:

1. Any brand, character or product name that is not the item's own (including "style", "like", "similar to", "not X", "dupe").
2. Words repeated more than needed, in the title or across title and backend fields.
3. Style, era or trend words the brief does not support (vintage, y2k, 90s, designer, luxury).
4. Condition or authenticity words the brief does not support (new, unworn, genuine, rare).
5. Tags, hashtags or specifics that describe other items, sizes or trends.
6. Keyword lists or deliberate misspellings hidden in the description.

For each problem: quote it, give the risk in one line, and an honest replacement from my brief (or "remove"). Then give a verdict: "Ready to post" or "Fix first". Accurate words buyers really search are fine: the aim is relevance, not fewer words.

UK English. Do not invent facts.

My listing (title, description, tags or hashtags, specifics):

[PASTE YOUR LISTING HERE]

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for a Vinted listing of an unbranded floral midi dress, size 12:

Problem	Risk	Replacement
"Zara style" in title	Another brand's name to attract searches	Remove
"vintage"	No era in the brief	Remove
"dress" 4 times in the title	Stuffing	"Floral midi dress, size 12, button front"

Verdict: Fix first.

Check before you post:

- Remove another brand's name even if other sellers use it. It can breach platform and trademark rules.

Module 05: Photos

Buyers cannot pick your item up, so your photos do most of the describing. AI cannot take them for you, but it is good at three jobs: planning the shots so you do not forget the label, the flaw or the back; checking your photo set against your Listing Brief; and writing captions and alt text.

For a ready tick-list of shots by category, use templates/photo-shot-lists.md. PH01 tailors it to one item.

The one rule about edited and AI photos

Your photos must show the actual item you are sending, in its actual condition.

- Cropping, straightening and a little brightness are fine.
- Removing a stain, scratch or bobbling, changing the colour, adding a background that suggests extras are included, or an AI "model" image that changes how the item looks is not fine.
- Stock photos and photos copied from other listings are not fine for second-hand items.

Platform	Their rules, in short
eBay UK	Photos must show the actual item. No stock photos for used items. No added borders, text or watermarks
Vinted	Your own photos of the item's current condition. Whole item first, labels for branded items, every defect. No stock, watermarked or found-online images, no collages
Etsy	Listings must accurately show what the buyer will receive. If AI helped create the item or its design, the Creativity Standards (as we read them) ask you to say so in the description and label the item "Designed by". Mockups must not mislead
TikTok Shop UK	Realistic AI images or video must be labelled, and must not make the product look different (texture, features, size)
Depop, Amazon UK	Images must accurately show the product. Amazon has strict main image rules

Rules change. Check the current rule in the platform's help pages before using any AI editing or background tool. A misleading photo is also a fast route to a "not as described" claim.

PH01 Shot list for my item

Use it when: You have written the Listing Brief and want a numbered shot list before you pick up your phone. Paste this:

Help me plan listing photos for this exact item on [PLATFORM]. Most photos allowed (check the app): [NUMBER OR "NOT SURE"]

Write a numbered shot list. For each shot: what to photograph, the angle or distance, and why a buyer needs it (one short line).

Rules:

- UK English, short enough to read on a phone.
- Order: cover photo (whole item), back, labels, then one shot for every flaw in my brief, then details.
- Base it only on my brief. If a shot depends on something the brief does not say (e.g. whether there is a box), write [CHECK: ...].
- If there are more shots than the platform allows, say which to combine or drop, but never drop a flaw shot.
- No filters or edits that change colour or hide wear.
- Children's items: remind me to cover name tapes, names written on labels and school logos.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for Clarks black leather Chelsea boots, UK 6, light creasing across the toes, small scuff on the left heel:

1. Cover: pair side on, plain floor, phone at boot height.
2. Front: both toes to camera. Shows the creasing honestly.
3. Soles: side by side, top down. Buyers judge wear from soles.
4. Inside: size and brand stamp on the insole.
5. Flaw: left heel scuff, close up, coin for scale.

[CHECK: is there a box? If yes, add one shot.]

Check before you post:

- The cover photo shows the whole item, not a close-up.

PH02 Flaw photo checklist

Use it when: Your item has any wear, marks or faults and you want to show them properly. This protects you as much as the buyer. Paste this:

Help me photograph the flaws on my item honestly and clearly.

1. List every flaw in my brief (and any extras below) as a checklist.
2. For each, tell me how to photograph it: distance, angle, light, and what to put next to it for scale (coin, ruler, tape measure).
3. Suggest a short caption for each flaw photo using the same words as my brief.
4. List places flaws often hide on this type of item that my brief does not mention, as [CHECK: ...] questions. Do not assume they are flawed.

UK English. Plain, factual wording. Never describe a flaw as smaller than my brief says.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

Extra flaws I have noticed since: [EXTRA FLAWS OR "NONE"]

What good output looks like for the Next jumper with light bobbling under both arms:

- How to shoot it: lay it flat, lift one arm out, shoot from about 20 cm in window light from the side (side light shows bobbling better). Ruler along the patch.
- Caption: "Light bobbling under both arms, shown close up."
- Also check: [CHECK: bobbling where a bag strap rubs?] [CHECK: any small holes? Hold it up to a window.] [CHECK: any smell, such as smoke or perfume?]

Check before you post:

- The flaw is visible at phone screen size, not only when zoomed in.

PH03 Phone lighting and background plan

Use it when: You photograph at home with just a phone and want truer colour without buying kit. Paste this:

I photograph listings on my phone at home. Help me set up for the item in my brief.

- When I usually shoot: [E.G. WEEKDAY EVENINGS]
- Space and window: [E.G. SMALL BEDROOM, WINDOW FACING NORTH]
- Possible backgrounds I own: [E.G. WHITE DUVET COVER, GREY WALL, WOODEN FLOOR]

Give me:

1. The best place and time to shoot with my window light.
2. Which background suits this item's colour, and why.
3. Five phone tips (focus, exposure, clean lens, no zoom, no flash glare).
4. How to check the colour on screen matches the real item.
5. What to do if I must shoot after dark, with ordinary lamps.

UK English, no jargon, short steps. Do not recommend buying anything or any edit that changes colour or hides wear.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

Check before you post:

- Nothing in the background could be mistaken as included.

PH04 Photo set audit

Use it when: You have taken your photos and want a second pair of eyes to spot gaps before you post. Paste this:

Check my photo set against my Listing Brief before I post.

My photos, in order (a plain description of each):

1. [DESCRIBE PHOTO 1, E.G. "FRONT OF JUMPER, FLAT ON BED"]
2. [DESCRIBE PHOTO 2]
3. [ADD MORE LINES AS NEEDED]

(If your AI tool accepts images you can upload the photos instead, but only photos of the item, never addresses, faces or documents.)

Tell me:

1. Missing shots a buyer would expect.
2. Mismatches with the brief (a flaw shown but not in the brief, or something in shot that is not included).
3. The best order. The cover should show the whole item in true colour on a plain background, filling the frame and clear as a small square thumbnail. Major flaws go early in the set.
4. Privacy: anything to crop out (post, family photos, house numbers, reflections).

UK English. Only comment on what I describe or show. If you cannot tell, write [CHECK: ...].

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for a Tefal kettle with limescale inside and a small chip on the lid:

- Missing: the base plate and plug, and the inside showing the limescale (it is in your brief, so show it).
- Mismatch: photo 3 has two mugs beside the kettle. Retake without them.
- Privacy: photo 2 shows a letter on the worktop. Crop it out.

Check before you post:

- Nothing in any photo suggests something is included when it is not.

PH05 Photo captions

Use it when: Your platform lets you add a caption to each photo, or you want matching lines for the description. Paste this:

Write one short caption for each of my listing photos.

My photos, in order:

1. [DESCRIBE PHOTO 1]
2. [DESCRIBE PHOTO 2]
3. [ADD MORE AS NEEDED]

Rules:

- UK English, 12 words or fewer each. Say what the photo shows, plainly.
- Flaw captions use the same words as my brief and never play the flaw down.
- Only facts from the brief. If a caption needs a fact I have not given, write [CHECK: ...].
- No hype words, emoji or exclamation marks.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

Check before you post:

- Captions match the description word for word on flaws.

PH06 Alt text for listing photos

Use it when: Your platform or web shop has an alt text box (a short description of an image for people using screen readers). Etsy and most web shops have one. Paste this:

Write alt text for each of my product photos.

Photos, in order:

1. [DESCRIBE PHOTO 1]
2. [DESCRIBE PHOTO 2]
3. [ADD MORE AS NEEDED]

Rules:

- UK English. Describe plainly, for someone who cannot see it: item, colour, angle, any flaw shown.
- Do not start with "Image of" or "Photo of".
- No keyword stuffing or repeating the title. Alt text is for people, not search.
- Only facts from my brief. Missing details become [CHECK: ...].
- Under [CHARACTER LIMIT, OR 125] characters each.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

Check before you post:

- Each line describes the photo, not the sales pitch.

PH07 Is this edit OK?

Use it when: You are tempted to use a background remover, a "magic eraser", an AI model or any AI photo tool, and want to check it will not misrepresent the item. Paste this:

I want to edit a listing photo. Tell me whether the edit risks misrepresenting my item.

Platform: [PLATFORM]

The original photo shows: [DESCRIBE THE ORIGINAL]

The edit I want: [E.G. PLAIN WHITE BACKGROUND / REMOVE A HAIR / PUT THE JUMPER ON AN AI MODEL]

The tool: [TOOL NAME OR TYPE]

Rule text I copied from the platform's help pages (optional): [PASTE OR "NONE"]

Answer in three parts:

1. Risk: low, medium or high that the edit changes how the item looks (colour, condition, size, shape, what is included), in one or two lines.
2. A safer way to get a similar result without editing the item (e.g. reshoot on a plain sheet).
3. A reminder to check the platform's current photo and AI rules. Do not state rules as fact unless I pasted them.

UK English. Be honest, not reassuring. If the edit would hide or reduce any flaw in my brief, say plainly not to do it.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for a cream Zara linen shirt with a faint mark on the left cuff, edited onto an AI model:

1. Risk: high. An AI model image generates a new version of the shirt. Fit, colour and creases may change and the cuff mark may disappear.
2. Safer: hang it on a door against a plain wall in daylight, add the cuff close-up, and give chest and length measurements for fit.

Check before you post:

- At least one unedited photo of the real item is in the set, and every flaw is still visible.

Module 06: Pricing

These prompts replace a guess with a short written reason you can stand behind. They help you set a sensible price from real evidence and do the sums properly. They cannot promise a sale or a price: buyers decide that.

The rule: you find the sold prices, the AI does the maths

AI chat tools do not know what your item sold for last week. Ask "what is this worth?" and you get a confident guess. Instead:

1. Look up sold listings yourself on the platform you sell on. On eBay, search and turn on the "Sold items" filter. Elsewhere, look for items marked sold. An asking price is not a sold price.
2. Copy 5 to 10 comparable items into your notes: title, sold price, postage, condition and date if shown. Close matches beat lots of matches.
3. Paste them into the prompt with your Listing Brief.

Do not use scraping tools, bots or browser add-ons that harvest listings. Most platforms' terms forbid it, and ten minutes of looking gives better comps because you can see which items really match.

A good comp is the same brand and model or style, a similar size and condition, sold in the last few months, with postage noted. "Similar" items from another brand, new-with-tags items against your worn one, and unsold asking prices are weak comps.

R01 Tidy my sold comps

Use it when: You have copied a messy pile of sold listings into your notes and want a clean table before pricing. Paste this:

Put the sold listings I copied into a clean table so I can compare them with my item.

Columns: Title (shortened), Sold £, Postage £ (or "free" or [CHECK]), Total £, Condition, Size or model, Date sold (or [CHECK]), Match to my item (Good, Partial, Poor) with a one-line reason.

Rules:

- UK English, pounds.
- Only use numbers in what I pasted. Never invent a price, date or condition.

Missing details become [CHECK].

- If something looks like an asking price, flag it [CHECK: sold or asking?].
- Good matches first. Below the table, list comps to drop and why.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

Sold listings I copied (messy is fine):

[PASTE YOUR SOLD LISTINGS HERE]

What good output looks like for the Next jumper (invented figures):

Title	Sold £	Postage £	Total £	Condition	Match
Next grey wool blend jumper, 12	12.00	2.99	14.99	Good	Good: same style and size
Next wool mix jumper grey NWT, 12	22.00	3.20	25.20	New with tags	Poor: new, yours is worn

Drop: the NWT one.

Check before you post:

- You have at least three Good matches before moving on to R02.

R02 Price from my sold comps

Use it when: You have your tidied comps and want a list price, a realistic range and a floor. Paste this:

Suggest a price for my item using only the sold listings I found.

Platform: [PLATFORM]

Buyer pays postage on top, or included in my price? [ON TOP / INCLUDED]

Give me:

1. The sold range from Good matches only, lowest to highest, and the median.
2. Whether my item is better, the same or worse than those matches, from my brief only.
3. A list price, a likely accepted price, and my floor from the brief. If my floor is above what the comps support, say so.
4. Two or three lines of reasoning I can save.

Rules:

- UK English, pounds, show the sums. Write ranges as "£10 to £14".
- Use only the numbers I pasted, no outside price knowledge.
- Fewer than three Good matches: say the evidence is thin and what to search for.
- Say "based on these comps", never "this will sell for".

My Listing Brief (includes my floor):

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

My sold comps (ideally the table from R01):

[PASTE COMPS HERE]

What good output looks like for Clarks black leather Chelsea boots, UK 6, floor £18 (invented figures):

1. Good matches sold for £20 to £32. Median £25.
2. Condition: similar to most. The heel scuff puts you slightly below the two best.
3. List at £28, expect offers around £22 to £25, floor £18.

4. Reasoning: five Good matches, median £25. A little above median leaves room for offers.

Check before you post:

- Your floor still covers fees and postage (use R07).

R03 Adjust for condition and extras

Use it when: Your item is not quite like the comps (better or worse condition, no box, extra accessories) and you want a fair adjustment. Paste this:

My item differs from the comps I found. Help me adjust the price fairly.

How my item differs (my own words):

[E.G. "NO ORIGINAL BOX, BUT COMES WITH A SPARE CHARGER"]

1. For each difference: up, down or no clear difference, with a one-line reason a buyer would recognise.
2. If the comps show the effect (boxed sold higher than unboxed), use those numbers and show the sum. If not, say "the comps do not show this" and label your suggestion a judgement, not evidence.
3. Give an adjusted list price and floor.

UK English, pounds. Only numbers I pasted. Never guess a "collector's value". Never suggest describing the item as better than my brief.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

My closest sold comps:

[PASTE COMPS HERE]

What good output looks like for a turquoise Switch Lite, light screen scratches, no box, with a case (invented figures):

1. No box: down. Boxed comps sold at £95 and £100, unboxed at £82 and £85: about £12 to £15 less.

2. Screen scratches: down. The comps do not show this. Judgement: price towards the lower end of unboxed.
3. Case: small plus, not shown in the comps.

Adjusted list £85, floor £75.

Check before you post:

- The differences (no box, scratches, extras) are in your description too.

R04 Bundle pricing

Use it when: You want to sell several items together, or a buyer asks for a bundle price. Paste this:

Help me price a bundle.

Items (one line each, with my list price and floor):

[PASTE ITEMS HERE]

Platform: [PLATFORM]

Postage as one parcel: £[AMOUNT OR "NOT SURE"]

Postage if sent separately (total): £[AMOUNT OR "NOT SURE"]

Platform bundle discount switched on? [YES, WITH % / NO / NOT SURE]

Give me:

1. The total of list prices and the total of floors.
2. The postage saving from one parcel, if I gave both figures.
3. A bundle price and the lowest bundle price to accept, never below the total of my floors.
4. One friendly line to send the buyer, based on the postage saving, with no pressure.

UK English, pounds, show the sums. Use only my numbers; missing postage becomes [CHECK: postage]. No "today only" or "last chance".

What good output looks like for three Frugi tops, age 4 to 5 (£8, £8, £7 list; £6, £6, £5 floor), invented figures:

1. List total £23. Floor total £17.

2. Postage saving: £8.40 separately against £3.20 as one parcel, so £5.20.
3. Bundle £19, accept down to £17.
4. "I can do all three for £19. They go in one parcel, so it saves on postage."

Check before you post:

- If the platform takes its own bundle discount off on top, you have included it in the sums.

R05 Offer strategy

Use it when: You want to decide in advance which offers to accept, counter or decline, so you are not deciding at 11pm with a lowballer waiting. Paste this:

Help me set an offer plan for this listing.

Platform: [PLATFORM]

List price: £[AMOUNT]

My reasoning from comps (optional): [PASTE OR "NONE"]

Can the app auto-accept or auto-decline offers? [YES / NO / NOT SURE]

Give me:

1. Accept straight away at or above: £...
2. Counter if between £... and £..., and the counter price to send.
3. Decline below: my floor.
4. If auto settings exist, the levels to set, with a reminder to check how they work in the app.
5. One short, polite line for each case.

UK English, pounds. Never accept or counter below my floor. No fake scarcity or pressure ("someone else is interested") unless I say it is true.

My Listing Brief (includes my floor):

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for a Le Creuset casserole, list £65, floor £48:

1. Accept at £58 or more.
2. Counter offers from £48 to £57 at £56.

3. Decline below £48.

4. Auto settings: auto-accept at £58. Auto-decline below £48, or set it a little lower (say £45) if you want near misses to reach you so you can counter at your floor yourself.

5. Counter: "Thanks for the offer. The lowest I can do is £56, as it is heavy to post."

Check before you post:

- Any reason you give (like heavy postage) is true.

R06 Planned price drop schedule

Use it when: An item has not sold and you want a calm plan for reducing it, rather than panic-dropping or leaving it forever. Paste this:

Make a price drop plan for an item that has not sold.

Platform: [PLATFORM]

Current price: £[AMOUNT]

Listed for: [NUMBER] days

Views, likes or watchers (if shown): [NUMBERS OR "NOT SURE"]

Give me:

1. First, anything other than price that could be holding it back (cover photo, title, missing measurements, postage), from my brief only. [CHECK: ...] for anything you cannot see.
2. A drop plan in weeks from today, with the price at each step, stopping at my floor.
3. What to do if it has not sold at the floor (bundle, relist with new photos, sell elsewhere, donate).

UK English, pounds, round numbers. Never below my floor. Do not say any step will make it sell. If the app lets me send offers to people who liked it, mention that as an option to check.

My Listing Brief (includes my floor):

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for a cream Zara linen shirt, size S, listed 21 days at £14, 2 likes, floor £8:

1. First: no chest measurement in your brief [CHECK: add pit to pit and length]. Check the cover photo is not crumpled.
2. Week 1: fix those, keep £14. Week 2: £12, and send an offer to the likers if the app allows. Week 4: £10. Week 6: £8, stop.
3. If still unsold: bundle with other size S linen, relist in spring, or donate.

Check before you post:

- You fix listing problems before you drop the price.

R07 Fee and postage maths

Use it when: You want to know what you actually keep after fees, postage and packaging, before you set a price or accept an offer. Makers: put your materials (and time, if you want it counted) in the cost line. Paste this:

Work out what I keep from a sale, using fees I copy from the platform myself.

Platform: [PLATFORM]

Sale price: £[AMOUNT]

Postage the buyer pays: £[AMOUNT OR "NONE, INCLUDED"]

My actual postage cost: £[AMOUNT]

Packaging: £[AMOUNT OR "0"]

Fees copied from the platform's fee page today (percentage, fixed fee, whether it applies to postage):

[PASTE CURRENT FEE DETAILS HERE]

What the item cost me (optional): £[PRICE PAID, OR FOR MAKERS: MATERIALS + SHARE OF KILN OR TOOLS + TIME AT A RATE I CHOOSE, EACH LISTED]

Amount I want to keep: £[TARGET AMOUNT]

Show a simple table: money in, each fee with its sum, postage and packaging out, what I keep, and what is left after cost if I gave one. Then the lowest sale price that still keeps my target amount.

Rules:

- UK English, pounds, nearest penny.
- Use ONLY the fees I pasted, never your own knowledge. Unclear fees become [CHECK: ...].
- This is a sum, not advice. Only call it "profit" if I gave a cost. If I listed making costs, add them up and show each one.

What good output looks like for a sale at £15, buyer pays £3.50 postage, real postage £3.20, packaging £0.30, and fees invented for this example (10% of the total including postage, plus £0.30 per order):

Line	Sum	£
Money in	15.00 + 3.50	18.50
Percentage fee	10% of 18.50	1.85
Fixed fee		0.30
Postage and packaging	3.20 + 0.30	3.50
You keep	18.50 minus 5.65	12.85

To keep at least £10, the lowest sale price is £11.84: $(10 + 0.30 + 3.20 + 0.30)$ divided by 0.9, minus 3.50, rounded up.

(The fees above are invented to show the maths. They are not any platform's real fees.)

Check before you post:

- You pasted today's fees from the platform's own pages, and weighed the parcel.
- Fees can differ for private and business sellers.

R08 Is it worth listing on its own?

Use it when: You have a low-value item and are not sure whether to list it alone, bundle it or let it go. Paste this:

Help me decide whether this item is worth listing on its own.

Sold comps (optional): [PASTE OR "NONE"]

What I keep at that price (from R07, optional): £[AMOUNT OR "NOT SURE"]

Minutes it takes me to list, message and pack one item: [MINUTES]

Similar items I could put with it: [LIST OR "NONE"]

Compare in a short table: list alone, bundle, job lot, donate or recycle. For each: effort, money kept (from my numbers only, otherwise [CHECK]) and when it makes sense. Then a one-line recommendation.

UK English, pounds. Only my numbers. Do not promise anything will sell. Practical, not preachy.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

Check before you post:

- Bundle and job lot listings still list every item accurately.

Module 07: Buyer messages

Messages eat evenings: "Is this still available?", the £3 offer on a £20 coat, the parcel stuck in a depot. These prompts reply quickly and correctly on three rules: polite, brief and factual (the platform's support team may read the thread later), stay on the platform, and respect the buyer's rights, with no pressure about feedback.

For everyday replies you can copy without an AI tool, use templates/message-snippets.txt (22 ready replies). This is practical guidance, not legal advice: for a serious dispute, check the platform's help pages, gov.uk or Citizens Advice.

Privacy: before pasting a buyer's message into an AI tool, remove their name, username, address, phone, email and order number, and replace them with [BUYER] or [ORDER]. Add the name back in the app if you want to.

Never move payment off the platform. Bank transfer, PayPal "friends and family" or "message me on WhatsApp": the answer is no. It removes both sides' protection and it is how many scams start.

Returns: private sellers and traders are different

Which are you? Clearing out your own things: usually a private seller. Buying items to resell for profit, or making items to sell: likely to be a trader in law, even on a personal account. Platform reporting to HMRC is a separate question. If unsure, read the guidance on gov.uk.

	Private seller	Trader (business seller)
Item must match your description	Yes	Yes
Satisfactory quality and fit for purpose	Not in the same way, so describe faults honestly	Yes (Consumer Rights Act 2015)
Faulty item rejected for a refund	Only if it was not as described	Generally within 30 days (the short-term right to reject)
Online cancellation for any reason	No legal right	Generally 14 days from the day after delivery, then 14 days to send it back. Some exceptions, such as personalised items

	Private seller	Trader (business seller)
Does "no returns" stop this?	It covers change of mind only	No. A trader cannot remove these rights

Platform protection sits on top of the law. Even with "no returns", a buyer can usually ask the platform for help if an item does not arrive, arrives damaged or does not match the listing (eBay Money Back Guarantee, Vinted Buyer Protection and the equivalents on Depop, Etsy, Amazon and TikTok Shop). Time limits differ by platform and change: check the current rule in the platform's help pages. Vinted says traders should use Vinted Pro, whose sellers must accept returns within 14 days of receipt.

The practical upshot: an honest listing with every flaw described and photographed is your best protection.

M01 Reply to any buyer message

Use it when: You have a message that does not fit the other prompts, or just want a quick, polite reply. Paste this:

Help me reply to a buyer on [PLATFORM]. I have removed their personal details.

I sell as a: [PRIVATE SELLER / BUSINESS]

Buyer's message:

[PASTE MESSAGE, WITH NAMES REPLACED BY [BUYER]]

What I want to say, rough is fine:

[E.G. "YES I CAN POST TOMORROW BUT NOT BEFORE"]

Write one reply.

Rules:

- UK English, friendly, under 60 words. No emoji unless I ask.
- Only facts from my brief or notes. If they ask something I have not answered, write [CHECK: ...].
- Keep everything on the platform. Do not promise delivery dates I have not given.
- If it is about returns, refunds or a problem with the item, say so and suggest the specific prompt.
- Do not mention feedback.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for "Hi, is it from a smoke free home? Can you post Saturday?" with notes "yes smoke free, I post Mondays and Thursdays":

"Hi, thanks for asking. Yes, it comes from a smoke-free home. I post on Mondays and Thursdays, so if you buy before Monday it will go out then."

M02 "Is this still available?"

Use it when: You get the classic question and want a reply that answers it and moves things along. Paste this:

A buyer on [PLATFORM] asked if my item is still available. Write a short, friendly reply.

Still available? [YES / NO, SOLD / ON HOLD]

When I can post: [E.G. "NEXT WORKING DAY"]

Anything useful to add: [E.G. "HAPPY TO SEND MORE PHOTOS" OR "NONE"]

Rules: UK English, under 40 words, answer the question in the first sentence. If available, add one useful fact and an easy next step using the platform's tools (buy, make an offer). No fake urgency ("lots of interest") unless I say it is true. Only facts from my brief.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like:

"Hi, yes it is still available. It is a UK 6 and I can post the next working day after purchase. Happy to send extra photos if useful."

Check before you post:

- It really is still available everywhere you cross-list.

M03 Lowball offer

Use it when: Someone offers far below your price and you want to stay polite without giving the item away. Paste this:

A buyer on [PLATFORM] offered much less than my price. Help me reply.

List price: £[AMOUNT]

Their offer: £[AMOUNT]

What I want to do: [COUNTER AT £... / DECLINE POLITELY / ASK WHAT THEY HAD IN MIND]

A true reason for my price (optional): [E.G. "SOLD COMPS AROUND £25", "HEAVY TO POST"]

Write a friendly counter and a polite decline, each under 50 words.

Rules: UK English, warm and calm, never sarcastic or lecturing. Never below my floor. Only reasons I gave, no invented buyers or deadlines. Any counter goes through the platform's offer button.

My Listing Brief (includes my floor):

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for a Le Creuset casserole, list £65, floor £48, offer £20:

- Counter: "Thanks for the offer. £20 is a bit too low for me, as similar ones have sold for more. I could do £55, and I will send it through the offer button."
- Decline: "Thanks for your interest, but I cannot go that low on this one. You are welcome to make another offer."

Check before you post:

- Your stated reason is true (you really looked at comps).

M04 Bundle request

Use it when: A buyer wants several of your items and asks for a deal. Paste this:

A buyer on [PLATFORM] wants several of my items together. Help me reply with a bundle price.

The items (title, list price and floor for each):

[PASTE ITEMS HERE]

Postage as one parcel: £[AMOUNT OR "NOT SURE"]

Bundle price I am happy with (or work it out with R04 first): £[AMOUNT]

How the platform handles bundles: [E.G. "BUYER ADDS ITEMS TO A BUNDLE AND I SEND AN OFFER" / "NOT SURE"]

Write a reply under 60 words that confirms the items, gives the price and whether postage is included, and says how to buy with the platform's bundle or offer tool.

Rules: UK English, friendly, on the platform. Never below the total of my floors. If the process is "NOT SURE", write [CHECK: how bundles work on this app].

What good output looks like:

"Hi, happy to do all three Frugi tops (stripe, dinosaur and navy) for £19 plus postage, all in one parcel. If you add them to a bundle, I will send you an offer for that price."

Check before you post:

- The combined parcel fits the postage size you quoted.

M05 Postage questions

Use it when: A buyer asks about postage cost, speed, tracking, collection or sending abroad. Paste this:

A buyer on [PLATFORM] asked about postage. Help me reply in under 60 words.

Their question (personal details removed):

[PASTE QUESTION]

My postage facts:

- Service: [E.G. "TRACKED 48"]
- Cost to buyer: £[AMOUNT OR "SET BY THE APP"]
- How soon I post: [E.G. "NEXT WORKING DAY"]
- Post outside the UK? [YES / NO]
- Collection? [YES, AND HOW THE PLATFORM HANDLES IT / NO]

Rules: UK English. Only these facts; anything else becomes [CHECK: ...]. Never promise a delivery date: say when I post and the service's usual time ("usually", not "guaranteed"). Collection only if I said yes, with payment on the platform. Never suggest undervaluing or marking anything as a gift on customs forms.

What good output looks like for "Could you send it first class? I need it for Friday.":

"Hi, I post with Tracked 48 as standard, the next working day after purchase. I cannot promise Friday delivery, sorry. [CHECK: can you offer a faster service, and at what cost?]"

Check before you post:

- Any upgrade cost is added through the platform, not paid separately.

M06 Delay: late dispatch or parcel stuck in transit

Use it when: You are going to post late, or tracking has stalled and the buyer is asking where their parcel is. Paste this:

Help me update a buyer on [PLATFORM] about a delay.

Type of delay: [I WILL POST LATE / STUCK IN TRANSIT / TRACKING SAYS DELIVERED BUT BUYER HAS NOT GOT IT]

Date of sale: [DATE]

Date posted: [DATE OR "NOT YET"]

Service, tracked or not: [E.G. "TRACKED 48, YES"]

What tracking shows now: [STATUS, NO TRACKING NUMBER NEEDED]

What I will do next: [E.G. "POST TOMORROW MORNING" / "OPEN A CARRIER ENQUIRY"]

Buyer's message (details removed): [PASTE OR "NONE, I AM MESSAGING FIRST"]

Write a reply under 80 words: sorry once, plainly; the facts and what I am doing next; and that their purchase is still covered by the platform's buyer protection (no specific time limits).

UK English. Do not blame the buyer. Do not promise a delivery date. No cancelling or refunding outside the platform. Missing facts become [CHECK: ...].

What good output looks like:

"Hi, sorry for the wait. I posted it on Monday with Tracked 48 and the tracking has shown it at a depot since Tuesday. I have asked the carrier to look into it and will update you as soon as I hear. Your purchase is still covered by the app's buyer protection."

Check before you post:

- If you promised to follow up, set a reminder on your phone.

M07 Return request

Use it when: A buyer asks to return an item, for any reason. Paste this:

A buyer on [PLATFORM] asked to return an item. Help me work out my position and reply.

I sell as a: [PRIVATE SELLER / TRADER]

My listing's return policy: [E.G. "NO RETURNS" / "30 DAY RETURNS"]

Platform rules I checked today (paste, or "NOT CHECKED"): [PASTE RULE TEXT]

Date delivered: [DATE]

Buyer's reason (details removed): [PASTE MESSAGE]

Part 1, my position, in short bullets:

- Is this change of mind, or a claim that it is faulty, damaged or not as described?
- If I am a trader: remind me of the 14-day right to cancel most online orders and the short-term right to reject faulty goods, which "no returns" cannot remove. Exceptions only as [CHECK: ...].
- If I am a private seller: change-of-mind returns are up to me, but "not as described", faulty or damaged claims may be covered by platform protection whatever my policy says.
- Platform rules only from the text I pasted. If I pasted nothing, tell me to check the help pages first.
- One line saying this is not legal advice.

Part 2: a polite reply under 80 words, using the platform's own return or refund process. Never tell the buyer they have no rights, argue about their reason, or refund off the platform.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for a private seller on Vinted, no returns, and "It's lovely but doesn't fit, can I send it back?":

Part 1: change of mind, not a fault, so accepting it is your choice. Not legal advice: check Vinted's current help pages.

Part 2: "Hi, sorry it did not fit. As I sell privately I do not accept returns for fit, which is why I listed the measurements. If there is anything wrong with the item itself, please let me know and I will help."

Check before you post:

- You are clear whether you are a private seller or a trader. If the claim is about a fault or the description, use M08.

M08 "Item not as described"

Use it when: A buyer says the item is different from the listing, faulty, or has a flaw you did not mention. Paste this:

A buyer on [PLATFORM] says my item is not as described. Help me respond fairly.

I sell as a: [PRIVATE SELLER / TRADER]

My original listing (title and description):

[PASTE LISTING TEXT]

What my photos showed: [E.G. "FLAW ON LEFT CUFF IN PHOTO 4"]

Buyer's complaint (details removed), and what their photos show:

[PASTE MESSAGE]

1. Compare the complaint with my listing, point by point: covered, not covered or unclear. Do not take my side automatically.
2. Suggest fair options (ask for photos, return for a full refund through the platform, partial refund through the platform, or let the platform decide) and say which fits best.
3. Write a calm reply under 90 words.

UK English. If the listing did not mention the problem, say so plainly. Never accuse the buyer of lying; if I suspect a swapped or damaged return, tell me to keep records and use the platform's process. Never refund off the platform or link a refund to feedback. Not legal advice.

What good output looks like for the Next jumper: listing said "light bobbling under both arms", buyer says "there is a hole on the back":

1. Bobbling: covered. Hole on the back: not mentioned anywhere. Likely a fair claim.
2. "Hi, I am sorry about that. I did not spot a hole when I listed it, so thank you for telling me. I am happy to accept a return for a full refund through the app, or offer a partial refund if you would prefer to keep it. Just let me know which suits."

Check before you post:

- Any refund goes through the platform so both of you stay covered.

M09 Damaged in the post

Use it when: The buyer says the item arrived broken, crushed or wet. Paste this:

A buyer on [PLATFORM] says the item arrived damaged. Help me handle it.

Item and how I packed it: [E.G. "GLASS VASE, BUBBLE WRAP, DOUBLE-WALLED BOX"]

Postage: [E.G. "PLATFORM LABEL" / "MY OWN TRACKED SERVICE"]

Buyer's message and what their photos show (details removed):

[PASTE MESSAGE]

Give me:

1. What to ask the buyer for (photos of item, packaging and label) and what to keep myself (proof of postage, packing photos).
2. Who likely handles the claim: the platform (e.g. if I used its label) or me with the carrier. If unsure, write [CHECK: ...] and tell me to check the help pages.
3. A calm reply under 80 words asking for photos and explaining the next step through the platform.

UK English. Do not blame the buyer or the carrier, refuse a refund, or settle off the platform. Not legal advice.

What good output looks like for a Denby mug set in bubble wrap and a single-wall box, sent with the seller's own tracked service:

1. Claim: your own service, so you would usually claim from the carrier yourself while the platform handles the buyer's request. [CHECK: the carrier's claim rules and time limit.]
2. "Hi, I am really sorry it arrived damaged. Could you send photos of the mugs and of the box and packaging, including the outside? That helps me sort it out with the carrier. I will make sure it is put right through the app."

Check before you post:

- Check the carrier's claim time limit today, not next week.

M10 Asking for feedback, without pressure

Use it when: A sale has gone smoothly and you want to send a thank-you that mentions feedback, fairly. Paste this:

Write a short thank-you message to a buyer on [PLATFORM] after delivery.

Item: [SHORT NAME]

Anything nice and true to mention: [E.G. "HOPE IT FITS WELL" OR "NONE"]

Mention feedback? [YES, ONE NEUTRAL LINE / NO]

Rules:

- UK English, under 40 words, no emoji unless I ask.
- Feedback, if mentioned, in one neutral line. Never ask for "positive" or "5 star".
- Never offer or hint at a discount, refund or reward for feedback or a review. That is against platform rules and UK law on fake and incentivised reviews.
- Nothing that discourages honest feedback.

Check before you post:

- It is sent once, and nothing is linked to feedback.

M11 Difficult or abusive buyer

Use it when: A buyer is rude, threatening, demanding things not in the listing, or threatening bad feedback to get a discount. Paste this:

A buyer on [PLATFORM] is being difficult. Help me respond calmly and protect myself.

What happened (details removed):

[DESCRIBE OR PASTE MESSAGES]

What the listing said on this point: [PASTE OR "NOT RELEVANT"]

Has a sale happened? [YES / NO]

Give me:

1. A one-line read: a genuine problem said rudely, a demand for something not in the listing, a threat linked to feedback, or abuse?
2. What to do: reply, reply once then stop, or do not reply; use the platform's report and block tools; keep all messages on the platform as a record.
3. If a reply makes sense, one calm reply under 60 words.

Rules:

- UK English. Calm and neutral. Never insult or threaten back.
- A genuine complaint still gets the platform's proper return or refund route, however rude the buyer.
- Threatening negative feedback to get something not in the listing is generally not allowed by platforms: tell me to report it, not give in.
- Threats to my safety: stop replying, report to the platform, and contact the police if I feel at risk.

What good output looks like for "Refund me £10 or I'll leave negative feedback", after delivery, item as described:

1. Read: a threat linked to feedback. Do: reply once, then report it through the platform.
2. "Hi, I am sorry you are not happy. The item was sent as described and photographed. If there is a problem with it, please open a request through the app and it will be looked at properly."

Check before you post:

- You have not written anything you would mind the platform's support team reading.

M12 Suspicious request or off-platform payment

Use it when: A buyer asks to pay another way, wants your email or number, asks you to post to a different address, or something just feels off. Paste this:

A buyer on [PLATFORM] sent a request that may be risky. Help me spot the risk and reply.

The request (details removed):

[PASTE MESSAGE]

Give me:

1. The warning signs (e.g. paying outside the app, a link to click, "my courier will collect", asking for my email or phone, a different delivery address, overpaying and asking for money back).
2. What to do: reply, decline, report or ignore.
3. A short, polite reply that keeps everything on the platform.

UK English. Do not help arrange payment, contact or delivery outside the platform. Do not tell me to click any link. Remind me that platform protection generally only covers sales paid through the platform.

What good output looks like for "Can I pay you by bank transfer so we avoid fees? Send me your number.":

1. Warning signs: paying outside the app, asking for your number. Do: decline politely, report if they push.
2. "Hi, thanks, but I only sell through the app so we are both covered. You are welcome to buy or make an offer here."

Check before you post:

- You have not shared contact details or clicked any link from the buyer.

Module 08: Video and TikTok Shop

Skip this module if you only list second-hand items on Vinted, eBay or Depop and do not make videos. Nothing else in the kit depends on it.

A short video can show an item's size, texture and flaws better than photos. You do not need to show your face, use your voice or film your home: everything here works with hands-only shots, a plain background, on-screen text and a text-to-speech voice. The module covers faceless product videos (V01 to V03) and TikTok Shop UK copy (V04 to V06). For TikTok Shop titles, use T06 in Module 02.

Three rules for video

- Show the real item. The exact item (or, for new stock, the exact product) the buyer will receive. No stock footage, no colour filters, no editing out flaws.
- No faces or personal details. Keep faces, mirror reflections, house numbers, post, family photos and number plates out of shot. Hands are fine.
- Say only what is true. A video is part of your listing. If you would not write it, do not say it.

TikTok Shop UK: claims to avoid

TikTok Shop UK's policies say claims must be genuine, accurate and verifiable, and products must not claim or imply they cure, heal, treat, prevent or relieve any disease or condition, in titles, descriptions, images or videos. In practice, keep out:

- Health wording: "cures", "relieves pain", "detox", "boosts immunity", "clinically proven".
- Before and after results you cannot prove, and weight loss claims.
- "Best", "number one" and "better than [BRAND]".
- Fake urgency: "only 2 left" when untrue, countdowns that reset.
- "Guaranteed", "100% safe", "non-toxic" or "eco-friendly" without specific, checkable facts.
- Other platform names, or asking buyers to pay elsewhere.

Rules change. Read TikTok Shop UK's current policies in Seller Center before you list.

V01 Faceless product video script (15 to 30 seconds)

Use it when: You want a short, honest video of one item without showing your face or using your own voice. Paste this:

Write a short faceless product video script in UK English for the item in my Listing Brief.

Platform: [TIKTOK / INSTAGRAM / TIKTOK SHOP / OTHER]

Length: [15 / 20 / 30] seconds

Voice: [TEXT-TO-SPEECH / ON-SCREEN TEXT ONLY]

Table columns: Seconds, What we see (hands or item only), On-screen text (8 words or fewer), Voiceover line.

Rules:

- Only facts from the brief. Missing facts become [CHECK: ...].
- No faces, people or reflections. Every shot possible with a phone, a plain background and my hands.
- Show every flaw in the brief clearly in at least one shot.
- First 2 seconds say plainly what the item is. End with a calm line such as "Details in the listing".
- No hype, "best", comparisons, health claims, fake urgency or other platform names.
- After the table, a one-line caption and the list of [CHECK] items.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for the Next jumper, 20 seconds, text-to-speech:

Seconds	What we see	On-screen text	Voiceover
0 to 5	Jumper flat on a cream sheet, tape across the chest	Size 12. Pit to pit 51 cm	"Grey Next wool-blend jumper, size 12. Fifty-one centimetres pit to pit."
10 to 15	Close-up under the left arm in daylight	Bobbling under both arms	"Light bobbling under both arms. Shown here."

Seconds	What we see	On-screen text	Voiceover
15 to 20	Jumper folded into a mailer	Details in the listing	"Full details and photos in the listing."

Check before you post:

- Watch it with the sound off. Does the on-screen text alone tell the truth about the item?
- Scan every frame for faces, reflections, post or house numbers.

V02 Hands-only shot list and showcase ideas

Use it when: You know what the item is but not how to film it without a face or a model. Paste this:

I film products with my hands only, never faces. Give me 8 short shot ideas I can film in under 20 minutes for the item in my Listing Brief. UK English.

My kit: [PHONE ONLY / PHONE AND TRIPOD]

Where I can film: [E.G. KITCHEN TABLE BY A WINDOW, WHITE SHEET]

For each shot: name, how to set it up (one or two lines), what it proves to the buyer (size, texture, how it works, condition) and roughly how many seconds.

Rules:

- Hands, flat lays, item on a surface, hanger or mannequin only. No mirrors.
- At least one scale shot (common object or tape measure) and one clear flaw shot if the brief lists flaws.
- Only facts from the brief. A shot that depends on something not in the brief gets [CHECK: ...].
- Daylight or one steady light, no colour filters.
- No props that could look included unless the brief says they are.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

Check before you post:

- Every [CHECK] is answered before you film the shots that depend on it.

V03 Caption, on-screen text and hashtags for a product video

Use it when: You have filmed the video and need the words to go with it. Paste this:

Write the words for my product video in UK English.

My shots, in order: [E.G. "1. FLAT LAY 2. CLOSE-UP OF LABEL 3. FLAW UNDER ARM"]

Platform: [TIKTOK / INSTAGRAM / TIKTOK SHOP]

Give me:

1. On-screen text for each shot, 8 words or fewer, readable on a phone.
2. One caption under 150 characters: what it is, size or key spec, and condition in plain words.
3. 3 to 5 relevant hashtags (item type, its own brand, category).

Rules: only facts from my brief; [CHECK: ...] for anything missing; no hype, "best", health claims, fake urgency or emoji; no trending hashtags unrelated to the item, no platform names, no other brands.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for Levi's 501 jeans, W32 L30, mid-blue, button fly, light fraying at the back hems:

1. Levi's 501, W32 L30
2. Mid-blue, button fly
3. Light fraying at back hems

- Caption: Levi's 501 jeans, W32 L30, mid-blue. Light fraying on the back hems, shown in the video.
- Hashtags: #levis501 #secondhandjeans #denim

Check before you post:

- The caption mentions the flaw as clearly as the video shows it.

V04 TikTok Shop UK product description

Use it when: You need a TikTok Shop product description that is clear, scannable on a phone and free of risky claims. Paste this:

Write a TikTok Shop UK product description in UK English for the product in my Listing Brief.

1. One opening sentence: what it is and who it is for.
2. 4 to 6 short feature lines: the feature, then the plain benefit. One fact per line.
3. "What's included", then "Size and specs" (dimensions, weight, capacity, materials), then "Care" if the brief gives it.

Rules:

- At least 30 words, aim for under 500 characters.
- Only facts from the brief. Missing facts become [CHECK: ...]. Never invent materials, certifications, dimensions or safety standards.
- No health or medical claims (cure, treat, prevent, relieve, detox, antibacterial), "clinically proven", "best", brand comparisons, guarantees or fake urgency.
- No vague green claims ("eco-friendly") without a specific, checkable fact.
- No other platforms or payment outside TikTok Shop. No emoji unless I ask.
- Then list every phrase that could count as a claim, so I can check it.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for an invented "Tidy Nook" bamboo drawer organiser set of 6 boxes in 3 sizes:

Six bamboo boxes in three sizes for sorting cutlery, utensils or stationery in drawers.

- Three sizes: mix and match to fit your drawer.

What's included: 6 boxes (2 small, 2 medium, 2 large). Material: bamboo [CHECK: any lacquer or coating?].

Check before you post:

- Measure the product yourself and match the numbers exactly.

V05 TikTok Shop claims check and safe rewrite

Use it when: You have product copy or a video script and want to catch risky claims before TikTok Shop or a buyer does. Paste this:

Check this TikTok Shop UK copy or video script line by line. UK English.

Table columns: Original wording, Why it might be a problem, Safer rewrite.

Flag anything that:

- makes or implies a health or medical claim (cure, heal, treat, prevent, relieve, detox, pain relief, anti-ageing results);
- makes a result or performance claim the brief does not support;
- uses "best", "number one", "better than" or compares with a named brand;
- uses fake urgency or a discount that is not real;
- makes vague green or safety claims (eco-friendly, non-toxic, 100% safe) without a fact in the brief;
- mentions TikTok or another platform in a title, or sends buyers elsewhere to pay;
- states a fact not in the brief (mark [CHECK: ...]).

Then give the full cleaned-up version, adding no new claims. This is a check, not legal advice.

Copy or script to check:

[PASTE TITLE, DESCRIPTION, CAPTION OR SCRIPT]

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

What good output looks like for a lavender wheat bag:

Original	Problem	Safer rewrite
"Relieves back pain and helps you sleep"	Health claim	"Microwaveable wheat bag with dried lavender."

Original	Problem	Safer rewrite
"100% natural and totally safe"	Vague safety claim	"Filled with wheat and dried lavender."
"Only 3 left!!!"	Possible fake urgency, symbols	Remove

Check before you post:

- Heated, electrical, children's and skin products often need extra documents. Check the category rules in Seller Center, and copy the real safety instructions from the label word for word (C11 helps makers gather them).

V06 Live-selling run-sheet

Use it when: You are planning a TikTok Shop LIVE, or any live selling session, and want a calm, honest plan without showing your face. Paste this:

Plan a faceless live selling session (hands and products only, voice or on-screen text). UK English.

Length: [30 / 45 / 60] minutes

Platform: [TIKTOK SHOP LIVE / OTHER]

Products (short brief for each: name, price, key facts, flaws):

[PASTE PRODUCTS]

A real offer I am running (only if genuine): [E.G. "BUY 2 GET FREE POSTAGE" OR "NONE"]

Run-sheet table: Time, Segment, On camera, What I say or show, Notes. Include a 2-minute welcome (what we are showing and how to buy through the platform's checkout), one segment per product (facts, flaws, scale, price), a questions slot every 10 to 15 minutes, and a 2-minute wrap-up.

Also give me:

- 6 short honest answers to common questions (size, postage time, returns, "is it genuine", "can you do cheaper", "can I pay another way"). Returns answers respect UK consumer rights and the platform's policy. Payment only through the platform.
- A "do not say" list: health claims, "best", fake countdowns or stock levels, invented discounts, other platform names, paying or messaging off the platform.

Only use facts I pasted. [CHECK: ...] for anything missing.

Check before you post:

- Any offer you mention is set up for real in Seller Center before you go live.

Module 09: Rule checker

Run these just before you post. They catch what gets listings removed or items returned: a flaw lost between your notes and the description, a title that is too long, a "genuine" you cannot prove, an "eco-friendly" you cannot back up.

This is not legal advice. An AI tool can miss things or be wrong about a rule. For anything important, check the current rule in the platform's help pages, and for legal questions see gov.uk, Citizens Advice or a qualified adviser.

How to use it: run C01 on every listing. Then the check for where you are posting: C02 eBay UK, C03 Vinted, C04 Depop, C05 Etsy, C06 Amazon UK, C07 TikTok Shop UK. Add C08, C09 or C10 if the listing mentions health, the environment, brands, authenticity or returns. Makers selling their own products: C11 for safety text and label details. For keyword stuffing, use K07 (Module 04).

The platform points in C02 to C07 are our summary, checked in September 2026. Better still, paste the rule text from the platform's help pages where the prompt says, so the AI checks against today's rule.

C01 Accuracy check: listing against brief

Use it when: Every time, on every platform, before you post. Paste this:

Check my listing for accuracy against my Listing Brief. You are a careful proofreader, not a copywriter. Do not rewrite unless I ask.

Report, as a short list:

1. Added facts: anything in the listing NOT in the brief (a material, size, year, "original box", "never worn").
2. Changed facts: anything that differs from the brief.
3. Missing or softened flaws: every flaw in the brief must appear, worded no more mildly.
4. Missing essentials that are in the brief (measurements, what is included, postage).
5. Misleading wording, even if technically true ("like new" for an item with wear).
6. American spellings or US sizes.

Label each point Must fix, Should fix or Fine, then a verdict: "Ready to post" or "Fix first". UK English. If unsure, write [CHECK: ...].

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

My listing (title, description, specifics or tags, condition, price, postage):

[PASTE YOUR LISTING HERE]

What good output looks like for the Next jumper:

1. Must fix: listing says "100% wool". The brief says 60% acrylic, 40% wool.
2. Must fix: the bobbling under the arms is missing from the description.
3. Should fix: the brief has measurements; the listing has none.

Verdict: Fix first.

Check before you post:

- Every Must fix is fixed, not just noted.

C02 eBay UK pre-post check

Use it when: You are about to post on eBay UK. Paste this:

Check my eBay UK listing before I post. Report problems, do not rewrite.

I sell as a: [PRIVATE SELLER / BUSINESS SELLER]

eBay rule text I copied today (optional): [PASTE OR "NONE"]

Check (pasted rule text wins if different):

- Title 80 characters or fewer including spaces. Show the count.
- Plain words: no shouting capitals, "L@@K", hype or keyword lists.
- No other brand's name, and no "style", "inspired by" or "dupe" next to one.

Nothing suggesting a replica.

- Specifics and condition match the brief; every flaw is described.
- Photos of the actual item, no added text, borders or watermarks.
- No contact details or dealing outside eBay.
- Business seller: nothing implying buyers have no rights.

Label issues Must fix, Should fix or Fine, then a verdict. UK English. If a rule may have changed, write [CHECK: eBay help pages].

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

My listing (title, specifics, condition, description, photos in a line each, price, postage, returns):

[PASTE YOUR LISTING HERE]

What good output looks like for Clarks black leather Chelsea boots, UK 6:

1. Must fix: title is 86 characters. Remove the "Womens Ladies" repeat: 74.
2. Must fix: "Dr Martens style" in the description. These are Clarks: remove it.

Check before you post:

- The title count is 80 or fewer in eBay's own box.

C03 Vinted pre-post check

Use it when: You are about to post on Vinted. Paste this:

Check my Vinted listing before I post. Report problems, do not rewrite.

Selling my own things, or trading as a business? [OWN THINGS / BUSINESS]

Vinted rule text I copied today (optional): [PASTE OR "NONE"]

Check (pasted rule text wins if different):

- Brand field and title show the real brand only. Nothing suggesting a replica.
- Condition matches the brief; every flaw is described.
- Photos: my own, current condition, whole item first, labels on branded items, every defect. No stock, found-online or watermarked images, no collages.
- UK size (or clearly labelled), with measurements where useful.
- No contact details or paying or messaging outside Vinted.
- If BUSINESS: remind me Vinted says traders should use Vinted Pro, whose sellers must accept returns within 14 days of receipt.

Label issues Must fix, Should fix or Fine, then a verdict. UK English. If unsure, write [CHECK: Vinted help pages].

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

My listing (title, description, fields, photos in a line each, price):

[PASTE YOUR LISTING HERE]

What good output looks like for a cream Zara linen shirt, size S, faint mark on the left cuff:

1. Must fix: no photo of the cuff mark. Add one.
2. Should fix: condition "Very good", but there is a mark. "Good" fits the brief better.

Check before you post:

- If you buy items to resell, read Vinted's current guidance on Vinted Pro.

C04 Depop pre-post check

Use it when: You are about to post on Depop. Paste this:

Check my Depop listing before I post. Report problems, do not rewrite.

Depop rule text I copied today (optional): [PASTE OR "NONE"]

Check (pasted rule text wins if different):

- The first line says clearly what the item is. Short, clear description with measurements and signs of wear.
- 5 hashtags or fewer, each relevant. Show the count. Flag unrelated brands or trend words.
- No other brand names, "dupe", "replica" or "inspired by [BRAND]".
- Every flaw in the brief described in plain words.
- Photos of the actual item, within the app's limit (8 when we checked).
- UK size or clearly labelled, with measurements.
- No contact details, social handles or paying outside Depop.

Label issues Must fix, Should fix or Fine, then a verdict. UK English. If unsure, write [CHECK: Depop help pages].

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

My listing (description with hashtags, fields, photos in a line each, price):

[PASTE YOUR LISTING HERE]

What good output looks like for Levi's 501 jeans, W30 L32, light fading on the knees:

1. Must fix: 8 hashtags (limit 5), and #wranglerstyle names another brand.
2. Should fix: the fading is only called "character". Say "light fading on both knees".

Check before you post:

- Wear is described in plain words, not dressed up.

C05 Etsy pre-post check

Use it when: You are about to post a handmade, vintage or craft supply listing on Etsy.

Paste this:

Check my Etsy listing before I post. Report problems, do not rewrite.

Who made it and how: [E.G. "I THROW AND GLAZE EACH ONE"]

Did I use AI in making the item, its design or the photos? [NO / YES, HOW]

Etsy rule text I copied today (optional): [PASTE OR "NONE"]

Check (pasted rule text wins if different):

- Title 140 characters or fewer, readable. Show the count.
- Up to 13 tags, each 20 characters or fewer. Count each. Flag repeats and tags that do not fit.
- Item type fits the brief. Vintage with no age: [CHECK: Etsy's vintage rule].
- AI used in the item, design or photos: the description says so (Creativity Standards).
- Hand words (handmade, hand-poured) match who made it.
- Photos show what the buyer receives; mockups must not mislead.
- No brands, characters or crests I have no right to use.
- Materials, eco and health claims backed by the brief. Returns wording keeps UK buyers' rights (see C10).

Label issues Must fix, Should fix or Fine, then a verdict. UK English. If unsure, write [CHECK: Etsy help pages].

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

My listing (title, tags, description, item type, photos in a line each, returns):

[PASTE YOUR LISTING HERE]

What good output looks like for a handmade speckled blue ceramic mug:

1. Must fix: "eco-friendly glaze" has no evidence in the brief. Remove, or state the specific fact.
2. Should fix: tag "handmade ceramic coffee mug" is 27 characters. Limit 20.

Check before you post:

- Any AI use is disclosed the way Etsy currently requires.
- Safety text on the listing matches your label (C11).

- Used AI only to help write the listing text? We found no Etsy rule on that, but check the current Creativity Standards.

C06 Amazon UK pre-post check

Use it when: You are about to publish or update an Amazon UK product listing. Skip this if you only sell second-hand. Paste this:

Check my Amazon UK product listing before I publish. Report problems, do not rewrite.

Media product (books, music, video)? [YES / NO]

Seller Central rule text I copied today (optional): [PASTE OR "NONE"]

Check (pasted rule text wins if different):

- Title 75 characters or fewer including spaces for non-media (from 27 July 2026). Show the count. Media: [CHECK: current limit].
- Item Highlights 125 characters or fewer.
- Title: no ! $? _ { } ^ ~ | unless in the brand, no word more than twice (small words excepted).
- No promotional phrases, emoji, or refund and guarantee claims.
- Nothing claimed that is not in the brief (materials, sizes, compatibility, certifications).
- Search terms: no title words, competitor brands or irrelevant words. [CHECK: byte limit.]
- Main image: plain white background, product only.
- Flag any health, safety or eco claim for C08.

Label issues Must fix, Should fix or Fine, then a verdict. UK English. If unsure, write [CHECK: Seller Central help].

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

My listing (title, Item Highlights, bullets, description, search terms, images in a line each):

[PASTE YOUR LISTING HERE]

What good output looks like for an own-brand "Oakden Home" bamboo chopping board set of 3:

1. Must fix: title is 118 characters and "board" appears three times. Suggested: "Oakden Home Bamboo Chopping Board Set of 3, Small Medium Large" (62).
2. Must fix: "antibacterial" has no evidence in the brief. Remove.

Check before you post:

- The title is within the current limit shown in Seller Central.

C07 TikTok Shop UK pre-post check

Use it when: You are about to publish a product on TikTok Shop UK, or a video that shows it. Skip this if you only sell second-hand on the resale apps. Paste this:

Check my TikTok Shop UK listing (and video script, if included) before I publish. Report problems, do not rewrite.

Seller Center rule text I copied today (optional): [PASTE OR "NONE"]

Check (pasted rule text wins if different):

- Title at least 15 characters, accurate. No promotions, seller name, web address, platform names or symbols.
- No claim anywhere that it cures, treats, prevents or relieves any condition. No weight loss claims or before and after images.
- Images: square, front of product first, colour, no text or watermarks beyond product branding.
- Realistic AI images or video labelled, and not changing how the product looks.
- Nothing claimed that is not in the brief. No fake urgency or invented reviews.
- The product is allowed: [CHECK: prohibited and restricted products lists].

Label issues Must fix, Should fix or Fine, then a verdict. UK English. If unsure, write [CHECK: Seller Center].

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

My title, description, images in a line each, and any video script:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING HERE]

What good output looks like for an own-brand lavender and shea hand balm, 50 ml:

1. Must fix: "soothes eczema" and "helps you sleep" are health claims. Remove.
2. Should fix: "Hand Balm!! 20% OFF" has symbols and a promotion. Suggested: "Lavender and Shea Butter Hand Balm 50 ml" (40).

Check before you post:

- Cosmetics have their own UK safety rules. [CHECK: gov.uk guidance on selling cosmetics.]

C08 Risky claims scan

Use it when: Your listing claims anything about health, safety, the environment, quality, origin or popularity, on any platform. Paste this:

Scan my listing for risky claims. For each: quote it, name the type, rate it Must fix or Should fix, and suggest an accurate alternative from my brief.

Platform: [PLATFORM]

Evidence I hold (certificate, test report, care label, receipt): [LIST OR "NONE"]

Types:

1. Health: cures, heals, relieves, soothes, detox, hypoallergenic, antibacterial, "safe for babies".
2. Environmental: eco-friendly, sustainable, biodegradable, plastic-free, natural, non-toxic. UK green claims must be clear, specific and backed by evidence.
3. Authenticity and origin: genuine, authentic, handmade (if not by me), vintage (no age), "made in [COUNTRY]", designer.
4. Quality and safety: waterproof, unbreakable, tested, certified, CE or UKCA, BPA-free.
5. Popularity and urgency: best seller, "only 1 left" (if untrue), selling fast.
6. Condition: like new, perfect, flawless, mint (if the brief lists wear).

If my evidence supports a claim, it can stay, worded specifically ("100% cotton, per care label", not "natural"). UK English. Do not invent evidence or approve a claim because it is common. Not legal advice.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

My listing:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING HERE]

What good output looks like for second-hand Joules wellies, UK 5, small scuff on the left toe:

Claim	Type	Rating	Safer wording
"100% waterproof"	Quality	Must fix	"No leaks when I tested them in water" (only if you did), or remove
"Like new"	Condition	Must fix	"Good used condition, small scuff on left toe"

Check before you post:

- Every claim left in is one you could prove if asked.

C09 Brands, authenticity and trademark wording

Use it when: Your item is branded, looks like a brand, or you are tempted to write "genuine", "authentic", "style", "inspired by" or "dupe". Paste this:

Check the brand and authenticity wording in my [PLATFORM] listing.

1. List every brand, designer, character, team or trademark name in it.
2. For each, say whether the brief shows the item is made or licensed by that brand. If not: Must fix.
3. Flag "style", "inspired by", "dupe", "replica", "1:1" or "same as [BRAND]". Counterfeits are illegal and banned on every major platform, and using another brand's name for searches is against most platforms' rules. Suggest describing the item by its own features.
4. "Genuine" or "authentic": if the brief gives proof (receipt, bought from the brand), state the proof plainly. If not, remove the word and rely on clear photos of labels.
5. Handmade items with a character, crest or logo: I may need the rights holder's permission [CHECK: the platform's intellectual property rules].

UK English. Never help a replica appear genuine. If the brief suggests it may be fake, tell me plainly not to list it as that brand. Not legal advice.

My Listing Brief (including how I know the brand):

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

My listing:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING HERE]

Check before you post:

- Authenticity is shown with photos and plain facts, not adjectives.

C10 UK consumer law wording check

Use it when: Your listing or shop has returns, refunds or guarantee wording, or you are not sure whether you are a private seller or a business. Paste this:

Check my returns, refunds and guarantee wording against UK consumer law basics. A practical check, not legal advice.

I sell as a: [PRIVATE SELLER CLEARING MY OWN THINGS / I BUY TO RESELL / I MAKE ITEMS TO SELL / NOT SURE]

Platform: [PLATFORM]

My wording:

[PASTE WORDING]

1. Status: buying to resell or making to sell means I am likely a trader, even on a personal account. If NOT SURE, list the factors looked at (buying to resell, how often, profit motive) and tell me to check gov.uk. Do not decide for me.
2. Trader: flag wording that limits buyers' rights ("no refunds", "sold as seen", "buyer pays return costs even if faulty"). Buyers from traders generally have goods of satisfactory quality, fit for purpose and as described; a short-term right to reject faulty goods, generally within 30 days; and for most online orders a 14-day right to cancel, with exceptions such as personalised items.
3. Private seller: the item must still be as described, "no returns" covers change of mind only, and platform protection can still apply.
4. Flag vague guarantees ("guaranteed quality").
5. Suggest fair, clear replacement wording for my status.

UK English. Never suggest wording that denies legal rights. Tell me to check gov.uk, Citizens Advice and the platform's help pages.

What good output looks like for a seller who buys at car boots to resell on eBay, with "Sold as seen. No returns, no refunds.":

1. Status: buying to resell suggests you are likely a trader.
2. Must fix: this tries to remove rights a trader cannot remove.
3. Suggested: "Returns accepted within 14 days of delivery. Please message me through eBay to start a return. This does not affect your statutory rights."

Check before you post:

- Your returns settings in the app match your wording.

C11 Product safety and label details (makers)

Use it when: You make and sell your own products (candles, ceramics, jewellery, textiles, toys, cosmetics) and want the safety text and label details gathered before you list. Paste this:

I make and sell [PRODUCT] in the UK on [PLATFORM(S)]. Help me gather its safety and label details. A practical checklist, not legal advice.

Materials and components: [LIST]

Who it is for: [ADULTS / COULD APPEAL TO CHILDREN / MADE FOR CHILDREN]

Warnings and instructions from my suppliers (paste exactly): [TEXT OR "NONE"]

What my label or packaging says now: [TEXT OR "NO LABEL"]

My business name and address on the product or packaging? [YES / NO]

Product or batch reference: [REFERENCE OR "NONE"]

Post to Northern Ireland or the EU? [YES / NO]

Give me:

1. A "Safety information" block for my listing, using ONLY the supplier and label text above, word for word. Gaps become [CHECK: ...].
2. A label checklist: what my label already has, and what is missing, as questions.
3. Up to 6 questions to check on GOV.UK for this product type. If I post to Northern Ireland or the EU, include whether the EU General Product Safety Regulation (GPSR) applies to me.

Rules: UK English. State no law, standard or certification as fact. Never write "safe", "non-toxic", "child-safe", CE or UKCA unless my supplier text says so. If it could appeal to children but is not made for them, flag it.

What good output looks like for a soy wax candle with the fragrance supplier's warning text pasted and no label yet:

1. Safety information: "Never leave a burning candle unattended. Burn out of reach of children and pets." (from your supplier's text, unchanged) [CHECK: the allergen statement your fragrance supplier gives for this fragrance]
2. Label: no business name or address yet. No batch reference [CHECK: would one help you trace a batch?]

3. To check on GOV.UK: what labelling applies to scented candles? Does your supplier's safety data sheet say what must go on the label?

Check before you post:

- Keep supplier documents and your label wording on file for each product and batch.
- Rules differ by product and change. If unsure, check GOV.UK or ask your local Trading Standards service.

Two more UK rules worth knowing

The private seller and trader table is in Module 07.

- Green claims: the Competition and Markets Authority's Green Claims Code says claims should be truthful and accurate, clear and unambiguous, not leave out important information, make fair comparisons, consider the full life cycle, and be substantiated.
- Fake or incentivised reviews are against platform rules and, for businesses, banned under the Digital Markets, Competition and Consumers Act 2024.

Tax is separate: platforms report some sellers' sales to HMRC. That is not the same as being a trader under consumer law, and it does not by itself mean you owe tax. Check gov.uk if unsure.

Module 10: Batch workflow

Listing ten items one at a time, starting a new chat for each, is slow. This module sets up one chat session that knows your shop, feeds it a stack of items, and gets back tidy listings you can copy straight in or paste into a spreadsheet for a bulk upload or cross-listing tool.

The order we suggest:

1. W01 Write your shop style instruction once and save it in your phone's notes.
2. W03 Turn rough notes for the whole pile into Listing Briefs in one go.
3. W02 Start a batch session with your style instruction, then feed it up to 10 briefs.
4. W04 Get the batch back as a table or CSV. W05 Check the whole batch.
5. W06 to W08 Plan the week, cross-list, and refresh quiet listings.

Free AI chats can lose track in very long sessions. If answers start drifting (American spelling, invented details, forgotten rules), start a fresh chat and paste your style instruction again. Batches of 5 to 10 items work best.

W01 Build your reusable "shop style" instruction

Use it when: You are fed up of re-explaining your shop to the AI. Do this once, save the result, and paste it at the start of every session. Paste this:

Write me a short, reusable "shop style instruction" to paste at the start of any AI chat before I list items. UK English, no more than 12 numbered lines, starting "You are my listing assistant for a UK shop."

My answers:

- Platforms: [E.G. VINTED AND EBAY UK]
- What I mostly sell: [E.G. WOMEN'S CLOTHING, SIZES 8 TO 18]
- Private seller or business: [PRIVATE / BUSINESS]
- Tone: [E.G. FRIENDLY AND PLAIN, NO EMOJI]
- Condition words I use: [E.G. NEW WITH TAGS / VERY GOOD / GOOD / SATISFACTORY]
- How I measure: [E.G. PIT TO PIT AND LENGTH IN CM, LAID FLAT]
- Postage line: [E.G. "POSTED WITHIN 2 WORKING DAYS"; ADD SMOKE-FREE OR PET-FREE ONLY IF TRUE]
- Words I never want: [E.G. "STUNNING", "RARE" UNLESS IT IS]

It must include these fixed rules: UK English, UK sizes and £. Only facts from each Listing Brief; never invent brand, size, material, measurements, age, condition or contents. Missing facts become [CHECK: what is missing]. eBay UK titles 80 characters or fewer. State flaws clearly. No hype, keyword stuffing, misleading or health claims, fake urgency, other platform names, or payment outside the platform.

What good output looks like for a private seller on Vinted and eBay UK:

You are my listing assistant for a UK shop.

1. I am a private seller on Vinted and eBay UK, mainly women's clothing, UK sizes 8 to 18.
2. Use UK English, UK sizes and £. Only use facts from the Listing Brief I give you; write [CHECK: what is missing] for gaps.
3. eBay UK titles: 80 characters or fewer. Vinted titles: short and plain.

...

Check before you post:

- Only include "smoke-free" or "pet-free" if it is true for every item.
- Business sellers: any returns wording must respect buyers' legal rights (Module 07).

W02 Start a batch session (list up to 10 items in one chat)

Use it when: You have a pile of items photographed and noted, and want to list them in one sitting. Paste this:

[PASTE YOUR SHOP STYLE INSTRUCTION FROM W01]

We are going to list [NUMBER, UP TO 10] items in this chat. Platform for this batch: [EBAY UK / VINTED / DEPOP / ETSY].

How this works:

- I will paste one Listing Brief at a time, each starting "ITEM [NUMBER]".
- For each, reply with: Title, Description, Condition line, [ITEM SPECIFICS FOR EBAY / TAGS FOR ETSY / HASHTAGS FOR DEPOP / FIELDS FOR VINTED], and a list of [CHECK: ...] items.
- Same layout every time so I can copy quickly on my phone.
- Never carry facts from one item to another.
- No price unless the brief includes one.
- When I type "DONE", stop and wait.

Reply "Ready for ITEM 1" and nothing else.

Then paste each brief starting with ITEM 1, ITEM 2 and so on.

What good output looks like for ITEM 3 on eBay UK: "Joules women's quilted gilet, navy, size 12, zip front, 2 zip pockets, light pilling on inside collar, pre-owned, good":

- Title: Joules Womens Navy Quilted Gilet Size 12 Full Zip Two Zip Pockets (65)
- Description: Navy quilted gilet from Joules, women's size 12. Full zip front and two zip pockets. Pre-owned, good: light pilling on the inside collar (see photos). Measurements: pit to pit [CHECK: cm], length [CHECK: cm].
- Item specifics: Brand: Joules. Size: 12. Colour: Blue [CHECK: eBay's colour list may use Blue for navy]. Type: Gilet. Department: Women. Outer shell material: [CHECK].

Check before you post:

- Scan each item for facts that leaked from an earlier item.

W03 Turn messy notes for 10 items into Listing Briefs in one go

Use it when: You have quick notes for a stack of items and want proper briefs before you start W02. Paste this:

Turn my rough notes for [NUMBER] items into Listing Briefs. UK English.

Headings for each: Item number | What it is | Brand | Size | Measurements | Colour
| Material | Condition and flaws | Included | Platform | Postage | Price floor

Rules:

- Only what is in my notes. Do not guess brand, size, material, age or value.
- Empty headings get [CHECK: ...] with what to find (e.g. [CHECK: care label for material]).
- Every flaw mentioned goes in "Condition and flaws".
- One short block per item. At the end, one combined "to find" list grouped by item, so I can check everything in one trip to the pile.

My notes:

[PASTE YOUR NOTES HERE]

Check before you post:

- Check the brand label on every item. Never list an item as a brand you cannot confirm.

W04 Batch output as a table or CSV for bulk upload tools

Use it when: You have finished a batch and want it in a spreadsheet, or a CSV to import into a bulk listing or cross-listing tool. Paste this:

Put all the items we have written in this chat into one table.

Columns, in this order: [PASTE YOUR TOOL'S COLUMN HEADERS, OR WRITE "DEFAULT"]
(DEFAULT means: SKU, Title, Description, Condition, Brand, Size, Colour, Material, Category, Price, Quantity, Postage.)

Rules:

- One row per item. Use the facts already agreed in this chat. Do not add or change anything.
- Missing facts: [CHECK]. Do not guess.
- For CSV: one code block, comma-separated, every cell in double quotes, line breaks inside cells replaced with a space, any double quote inside a cell doubled.
- Price column: numbers only, e.g. 12.50.
- Afterwards, list any rows that still contain [CHECK].

Output format: [TABLE / CSV]

What good output looks like:

```
"SKU","Title","Description","Condition","Brand","Size","Colour","Material","Category","Price","Quantity","Postage"
"WL-014","Joules Womens Navy Quilted Gilet Size 12 Full Zip Two Zip Pockets","Navy quilted gilet from Joules, women's size 12. Full zip front and two zip pockets. Light pilling on the inside collar (see photos).","Pre-owned, good","Joules","12","Blue","[CHECK]","Coats and jackets","18.00","1","Royal Mail 2nd Class"
```

Rows with [CHECK]: WL-014 (Material).

Getting it into a spreadsheet on your phone: the easiest route is TABLE. Copy the table from the chat and paste it into cell A01 of a new Google Sheet. If everything lands in one column (common with CSV), select that column, then choose Data, then "Split text to columns" and pick comma. To make a CSV file for an upload tool, do this on a computer: paste into Google Sheets as above, then File, Download, "Comma separated values (.csv)".

Check before you post:

- Use your bulk tool's own template headers, look over the sheet before uploading, and test one or two rows first.

W05 Batch accuracy check before you post

Use it when: You have a batch of listings ready and want a second pair of eyes to spot invented details, missing flaws and rule problems. Paste this:

Act as a careful UK listings checker. For each item, compare the listing with its brief and report:

- 1. Any detail NOT in the brief (possible invention).
- 2. Any flaw in the brief that is missing or softened.
- 3. Title length problems (eBay UK over 80 characters; other platforms [CHECK: current limit]).
- 4. Hype, keyword stuffing, misleading or health claims, fake urgency or other platform names.
- 5. American spellings or US sizes.

One short row per item: Item number | Problems found | Suggested fix. If fine, write "No problems found". Do not rewrite whole listings. UK English.

BRIEFS:
[PASTE BRIEFS]

LISTINGS:
[PASTE LISTINGS]

What good output looks like:

Item	Problems found	Suggested fix
1	Listing says "100% wool", brief says 60% acrylic, 40% wool	Use the brief's composition
2	Scuffed toes in the brief, not in the listing	Add "Scuffs on the toes (see photos)"
3	Title is 86 characters	Remove "Great" and "Look"
4	No problems found	None

Check before you post:

- The checker can miss things. Always read the flaws yourself, and go back to the item, not the AI, for the truth.

W06 Weekly listing routine planner

Use it when: You want a realistic weekly plan that fits your evenings and weekends, so listing does not pile up. Paste this:

Help me plan a weekly listing routine. UK English. Realistic, not motivational.

- Time I have: [E.G. MONDAY AND WEDNESDAY EVENINGS 1 HOUR, SATURDAY MORNING 2 HOURS]
- Items I want to list each week: [NUMBER]
- Platforms: [LIST]
- What slows me down most: [E.G. PHOTOS, MEASURING, WRITING, POSTING]
- Drop-off options near me: [E.G. LOCKER, 24 HOURS]

Give me:

1. A day-by-day table: Day, Time, Task, Roughly how many items, Prompts to use (by ID, e.g. W02, W05, R prompts, M prompts).
2. Batch similar tasks: all photos in one go, all measuring in one go, all writing in one AI session.
3. A 10-minute daily check for messages and dispatch.
4. A weekly 20-minute review: what sold, what has had no interest, what to refresh or reprice.

Simple enough to follow on a phone. Do not promise any sales results.

Check before you post:

- The dispatch times in your listings match the plan you can actually keep. The stock tracker template makes the weekly review quick.

W07 Repurpose one listing across platforms

Use it when: You have a good listing for one platform and want versions for others without starting again. Paste this:

[PASTE YOUR SHOP STYLE INSTRUCTION FROM W01, IF YOU HAVE ONE]

Here is the listing I wrote for [PLATFORM]:

[PASTE THE LISTING]

Rewrite it for: [TARGET PLATFORMS, E.G. VINTED, DEPOP]

Give each platform what it needs:

- eBay UK: title of 80 characters or fewer, description, item specifics.
- Vinted: short plain title, description with measurements and condition, field values.
- Depop: description starting with the key details, up to 5 relevant hashtags.
- Etsy (handmade, vintage of 20 years or more, or craft supplies only): readable title under 140 characters, description, 13 tags of 20 characters or fewer.

Rules:

- Same facts on every platform, from the brief only. Change format and tone, not facts.
- Missing facts become [CHECK: ...].
- No other platform named inside a listing. No hype, stuffing or misleading claims.
- Tell me if the item does not suit a platform instead of forcing it.

My Listing Brief:

[PASTE YOUR LISTING BRIEF HERE]

For Amazon UK or TikTok Shop UK, use A05 or A06 in Module 00 with the same facts.

What good output looks like for a Levi's denim jacket, size M, mid-wash, small fade at the left cuff, care label dated 1996, first written for eBay UK:

Depop. Vintage 1996 Levi's denim jacket, size M, mid-wash. Small fade at the left cuff (see photos). Pit to pit 56 cm, length 62 cm. #vintagelevis #denimjacket #90svintage #levisjacket #midwash

Check before you post:

- Cross-listing one item? Remove it everywhere else as soon as it sells, or you may sell it twice.

W08 Refresh a batch of quiet listings

Use it when: Some listings have had little interest for a couple of weeks and you want to improve them honestly, without stuffing or fake price tricks. Paste this:

Below are [NUMBER] listings that have had little interest. For each I have added the Listing Brief, current title and description, days listed, and any views, likes or watchers.

[FOR EACH ITEM PASTE: BRIEF / TITLE / DESCRIPTION / DAYS LISTED / VIEWS, LIKES OR WATCHERS]

For each item suggest:

1. A clearer title using words buyers search, most important first, within the platform's limit.
2. The top 1 or 2 description fixes (missing measurements, unclear condition, missing brand or size).
3. Photo fixes (daylight, plain background, label or flaw close-up).
4. Whether a price check is worth doing, and what sold listings I should search for (describe the search, do not invent prices).

UK English. Only facts from the brief; [CHECK: ...] for gaps. No stuffing, no "rare" or "vintage" unless the brief supports it, no fake discounts. Do not promise it will sell.

Check before you post:

- A price drop must be real. Never raise a price just to "drop" it later, and check the platform's rules on relisting duplicates.

Save these for every session

Keep these in one phone note: your shop style instruction (W01), the empty Listing Brief (templates/listing-brief-template.txt) and your bulk tool's column headers (for W04).

Module 11: Worked examples

Six complete examples, start to finish: the messy notes most of us actually write, the Listing Brief, the title, the description, the tags or fields, the price reasoning and one buyer reply.

Please read this first:

- Every item, shop and brand-owner here is invented. Real brand names appear only to show how a genuine branded item would be described.
- Every comp (comparable sold price) is invented. They show the method, not real prices. Look up real sold listings yourself.
- Fee figures are the ones we checked in September 2026 (Module 12). Fees change: check the current rule in the platform's help pages.
- Nothing here predicts what you will sell or earn. The aim is a clear, accurate listing.

Examples 1, 2 and 4 are second-hand resale. Examples 3, 5 and 6 are for makers and brand owners.

Example 1: Vinted, knitted jumper

Messy notes: "white stuff jumper oatmeal cable knit 14?? bit bobbly under arms. no holes. wore it a few times. smells fine. 8 quid?"

Listing Brief (B01):

Field	Fact
What it is	Women's cable-knit jumper, crew neck
Brand	White Stuff
Size	UK 14 (checked on the label, as the notes were unsure)
Measurements	Pit to pit 54 cm, length 64 cm, laid flat
Colour	Oatmeal
Material	60% cotton, 40% wool (care label)
Condition and flaws	Very good. Light bobbling under both arms. No holes, marks or stretching. No odour noticed

Field	Fact
Postage	Vinted's standard options. Posted within 2 working days
Price floor	£10

Title (T02): White Stuff oatmeal cable knit jumper, size 14 (46)

Description (D02):

Oatmeal cable-knit jumper from White Stuff, UK size 14. Crew neck, 60% cotton and 40% wool.

Measured flat: pit to pit 54 cm, length 64 cm.

Very good condition. Light bobbling under both arms (see photo 5). No holes, marks or stretching.

Posted within 2 working days. Happy to answer any questions.

Fields (K04): Category: Women > Jumpers [CHECK: pick the closest category you see]. Brand: White Stuff. Size: UK 14. Condition: Very good. Colour: Beige. Material: Cotton, Wool.

Price reasoning (R01, R02), invented comps: size 12 cream, very good, £14. Size 14 grey with bobbling, good, £11. Size 16 oatmeal, very good, £15. Size 14 with no flaws, excellent, £18. The closest matches sold between £11 and £15. Ours has light bobbling, so it sits in the middle, not at the top. Vinted does not charge private sellers a selling fee (the buyer pays a Buyer Protection fee at checkout; check the current price list). List at £14, accept offers down to the £10 floor. The "8 quid" in the notes was a guess, so we checked comps before setting a price.

Buyer reply (M03):

- Buyer: Would you take £8?
- Reply: Hi, thanks for the offer. That's a bit low for this one, as similar White Stuff jumpers have sold for more. I could do £12. Let me know and I'll send an offer through Vinted.

Example 2: eBay UK, used games console

Messy notes: "ps4 slim 500gb black. 1 pad. cables. works fine, did factory reset. couple scratches top. pad left stick a bit loose? no box. no games."

Listing Brief (B01, electronics version):

Field	Fact
What it is	Sony PlayStation 4 Slim, 500GB, model CUH-2216A (label underneath)
Colour	Jet black
Tested	Powers on, reads discs, connects to Wi-Fi, controller pairs and charges. Played a game for 10 minutes
Faults or quirks	Controller's left stick has slight play (movement). No drift seen in 10 minutes of play
Cosmetic	Two light scratches on the top surface
Reset	Factory reset, signed out of all accounts
Included	Console, 1 wireless controller, power cable, HDMI cable, USB charging cable
Not included	Box, games, manuals
Postage and seller	Tracked 48, well padded. Private seller, clearing our own console
Price floor	£95

The notes said "works fine", but the loose stick means we list exactly what was tested rather than "fully working".

Title (T01): Sony PS4 Slim 500GB Console Jet Black CUH-2216A Controller and Cables Tested (76)

Description (D01):

Sony PlayStation 4 Slim, 500GB, jet black, model CUH-2216A.

Tested before listing: powers on, reads discs, connects to Wi-Fi, controller pairs and charges. Played a game for 10 minutes. Factory reset and signed out of all accounts.

Condition: two light scratches on the top surface (photos 4 and 5). The controller's left stick has a little play when you move it, but I saw no drift in 10 minutes of play.

Included: console, 1 wireless controller, power cable, HDMI cable, USB charging cable. Not included: box, games or manuals.

Posted with a tracked 48 hour service, well padded.

Item specifics (K01): Brand: Sony. Model: PlayStation 4 Slim. Storage: 500 GB. Colour: Black. MPN: CUH-2216A. Region code: [CHECK: the console's region].

Price reasoning, invented comps: 500GB, 1 controller, cables, no box: £105 (the only close match). Boxed, bundled with games, 1TB or console-only listings are not fair comparisons. The loose stick and top scratches put ours slightly below the clean match. UK private sellers pay no final value fee in most categories (the buyer pays a Buyer Protection fee; check eBay's current fee pages). List at £105 plus postage, Buy It Now with offers, floor £95.

Buyer reply (M01):

- Buyer: Does the controller drift? Mine did and it drove me mad.
- Reply: Hi, fair question. The left stick has a little play if you move it, but I tested it in a game for 10 minutes and saw no drift. It's in the listing so there are no surprises. If anything isn't as described, you're covered by eBay's protection and I'll sort it.

Example 3: Etsy, handmade ceramic tealight holders

Messy notes: "new batch tealight holders!! sage speckle glaze, stoneware, 2 per set. about 8cm tall 7 wide. little star cutouts. glaze pooling on some = handmade look. tealights not incl. dishwasher? no, hand wash"

Listing Brief (B01, handmade version):

Field	Fact
What it is	Tealight holders, set of 2, with star-shaped cut-outs

Field	Fact
Maker	Handmade by us (invented shop: Hollow Hill Pottery). No AI used in the design or photos
Size	Each about 8 cm tall, 7 cm wide [CHECK: measure the inner opening]
Colour and material	Sage green speckled glaze, glazed stoneware
Handmade variation	Glaze pools differently on each piece
Included	2 holders. Tealights not included
Care	Hand wash only. Not dishwasher safe
Safety	Never leave a lit candle unattended. Place on a heat-resistant surface
Postage	Royal Mail Tracked 48, boxed with recycled paper padding
Price floor	£20

Title (T04): Handmade Stoneware Tealight Holders, Set of 2, Sage Green Speckled Glaze, Star Cut-Outs (87 characters, 13 words)

Description (D04):

A pair of handmade stoneware tealight holders in a speckled sage green glaze, each with small star-shaped cut-outs.

Size: each about 8 cm tall and 7 cm wide. Opening: [CHECK: inner width] cm.

Handmade: the glaze pools a little differently on each piece, so your pair will be similar to the photos but not identical.

Included: 2 holders. Tealights not included. Care: hand wash only, not dishwasher safe.

Please note: never leave a lit candle unattended, and stand the holders on a heat-resistant surface.

Posted Royal Mail Tracked 48, boxed with recycled paper padding.

Tags (K02): tealight holder, stoneware holder, ceramic tealight, sage green pottery, speckled glaze, star cut out, handmade pottery, stoneware tealight, candle holder set, set of 2 holders, sage tealight holder, star candle holder, speckled stoneware

Every tag comes from the brief. No "gift" or occasion tags, because the brief does not say who it is for.

Price reasoning, invented figures: costs £18.60 (clay and glaze £3.20, kiln share £2.00, packaging £1.40, 1 hour of time at a rate we choose £12.00). Etsy fees checked September 2026 on a £24 item plus £4.50 postage (£28.50 order): 6.5% transaction about £1.85, processing (4% + £0.20) about £1.34, listing about £0.15, so about £3.34 before the UK Regulatory Operating Fee [CHECK: current rate]. With postage covering postage, about £20.66 is left against £18.60 of costs. Similar handmade pairs sold at £22, £26 and £28 (invented). List at £24 plus postage.

Buyer reply (M01):

- Buyer: Would these hold a small pillar candle instead?
- Reply: Hi, thanks for asking. They're made for standard tealights, so a pillar candle won't fit inside. The opening is about [CHECK: inner width] cm across.

Example 4: Depop, vintage denim jacket

Messy notes: "wrangler denim jacket vintage 90s? label says made in 1996 i think. medium. light wash. corduroy collar. small mark on back. fits boxy"

Listing Brief (B01, clothing version):

Field	Fact
What it is	Denim jacket, corduroy collar, button front
Brand	Wrangler
Age	Care label shows a 1996 date (checked and photographed)
Size	M on label. Boxy fit. Men's or women's not stated on the label
Measurements	Pit to pit 60 cm, length 63 cm, sleeve 61 cm, laid flat
Colour and material	Light wash blue, brown corduroy collar. 100% cotton (care label)

Field	Fact
Condition and flaws	Good. Small faint mark on the upper back, about 1 cm (photo 6). Fading at the seams
Postage	Depop tracked shipping
Price floor	£30

Description (D03):

Vintage 1996 Wrangler denim jacket in a light wash with a brown corduroy collar. Size M, boxy fit.

Pit to pit 60 cm, length 63 cm, sleeve 61 cm (laid flat). 100% cotton.

Good condition: fading at the seams and a small faint mark on the upper back, about 1 cm (photo 6). Date on the care label in photo 7.

#vintagewrangler #denimjacket #90svintage #corduroycollar #lightwashdenim

Depop's fields (filled in by hand in the app): Category: Coats and jackets [CHECK: pick men's or women's by the cut and buttons]. Brand: Wrangler. Size: M. Condition: [CHECK: nearest option to Good in the app]. Colour: Blue. Hashtags checked with K03.

Price reasoning, invented comps: 90s Wrangler cord collar jacket, M, good: £38 (closest). Others (different size, no cord collar, heavy fading) sold from £28 to £45. Ours has a small mark, so a little below the closest match. Depop charges UK sellers no selling fee, but payment processing still comes out of each sale [CHECK: current rate in Depop's help centre]. List at £36, floor £30.

Buyer reply (M01):

- Buyer: I'm usually a size 12 in women's, would this fit?
- Reply: Hi, it's labelled M and has a boxy cut, so it's likely to be roomy on a size 12. The best check is to lay a jacket you like flat and measure pit to pit: this one is 60 cm. If yours is around 52 to 55 cm, this will be an oversized fit.

Example 5: Amazon UK, small brand phone stand

Messy notes: "oakpeg stand v2. beech wood, adjustable 3 angles. fits phones up to 7in and small tablets? (tested ipad mini ok). cable slot at back. rubber feet. 12 x 9 cm base. made in UK workshop. RRP 17.99??"

Listing Brief (B06 style):

Field	Fact
Brand and item	Oakpeg adjustable wooden phone stand (invented small UK brand, selling its own product)
Material	Solid beech, oiled finish [CHECK: name of oil]
Features	3 viewing angles. Cable slot at the back. 4 rubber feet
Fits	Phones up to 7 inch screen, with or without a slim case. Tested with an 8.3 inch small tablet in landscape
Size	Base 12 x 9 cm [CHECK: height and weight]
Made in	Our UK workshop
Included	1 stand. Phone not included
Price floor	£14.99

Title (A05 or T05): Oakpeg Beech Wood Phone Stand, Adjustable Holder with Cable Slot, 3 Angles (74)

Item Highlights: Solid beech, 3 viewing angles, charging cable slot, rubber feet, fits phones up to 7 inch. Made in the UK. (106)

Search terms (K05): desk mobile cradle dock kitchen recipe video call bedside tablet

No word from the title is repeated, and nothing the product is not (no "bamboo", no other brands).

Price reasoning, invented figures: costs £7.90 plus delivery or fulfilment [CHECK: your cost]. Amazon (checked September 2026): Individual plan £0.75 per item sold, or Professional £25 a month excluding VAT, plus a referral fee by category [CHECK: rate for this category]. Similar small-brand wooden stands are priced from £12.99 to £19.99 (invented, a sense check only). "RRP £17.99" from the notes is not used: we have never charged it. A "was" or reference price should be one you have genuinely charged (check Amazon's current reference price rules; this is not legal advice). List at £15.99.

Buyer reply (M01):

- Buyer: Will this hold an iPad Air?
- Reply: Hello, thanks for your message. We've tested it with phones up to 7 inch and an 8.3 inch small tablet in landscape. We haven't tested an iPad Air, which is larger and heavier, so we can't promise it will be stable.

Example 6: TikTok Shop UK, kitchen drawer organiser

Messy notes: "tidy nook expanding cutlery tray. bamboo. 5 sections closed, pulls out to 7. 29-49cm wide?? 38 deep 5 high. wipe clean. comes flat? no, one piece. people say it's the best on the market lol"

Listing Brief (B06 style):

Field	Fact
Brand	Tidy Nook (invented small UK brand, selling its own product)
What it is	Expandable cutlery tray
Material	Bamboo, lacquered finish [CHECK: lacquer type from supplier spec]
Size	Width 29 cm closed, 49 cm fully expanded (measured). Depth 38 cm. Height 5 cm
Compartments	5 closed, 7 expanded
Included	1 tray, arrives assembled
Care	Wipe clean with a damp cloth. Not dishwasher safe. Do not soak
Price floor	£13.99

"The best on the market" from the notes is a comparison we cannot prove, so it goes nowhere near the listing or videos.

Title (T06): Tidy Nook Expandable Bamboo Cutlery Tray 5 to 7 Compartments Kitchen Drawer Organiser (85)

Description (V04):

An expandable bamboo cutlery tray for kitchen drawers, 29 cm wide closed and 49 cm fully open.

- Expands: widens from 29 cm to 49 cm.
- Compartments: 5 closed, 7 expanded.
- One piece: arrives assembled.
- Finish: lacquered bamboo [CHECK: lacquer type from supplier spec].

What's included: 1 tray. Size and specs: 29 to 49 cm wide, 38 cm deep, 5 cm high. Care: wipe clean with a damp cloth. Not dishwasher safe. Do not soak.

Phrases to check: "for kitchen drawers" (buyers should measure their drawer; you only know the tray's size).

Price reasoning, invented figures: landed unit cost £5.80, packaging £0.60, delivery £2.90: £9.30. TikTok Shop UK standard commission checked September 2026: 9%, inclusive of VAT. At £16.99, commission is about £1.53, leaving about £6.16 before any affiliate commission, ads or promotions. Similar trays are priced from £14.99 to £22.99 (invented, a sense check only). List at £16.99. Any "was" price or discount must be genuine.

Buyer reply (M01):

- Buyer: Can it go in the dishwasher?
- Reply: Hi, thanks for asking. No, it's bamboo, so please wipe it with a damp cloth and don't soak it.

What all six have in common

1. Facts first. Every detail in the listing came from the brief. Guesses in the notes ("14??", "i think", "works fine", "RRP 17.99??") were checked or dropped.
2. Flaws up front, stated plainly with photo numbers.

3. No claims we cannot prove: no "best", "rare", "fully working", health wording or invented reference prices.
4. Prices from like-for-like comps and real costs, not a hunch.
5. Replies stay polite, honest and on the platform.

Module 12: Platform cheatsheet

Limits, fees and the rules that matter most when you write a listing, one table per platform. Last checked: September 2026.

Please check the current rules yourself. Platforms change limits, fees and policies often. If this sheet and the platform disagree, the platform is right. A figure on its own was confirmed from the platform's own pages. "Commonly reported" means other sellers and tools quote it but we could not confirm it officially. We are not affiliated with or endorsed by any of these platforms, and this is not legal or tax advice.

Quick comparison

Platform	Title limit	Tags or hashtags	Photos	Seller selling fee (summary)
eBay UK	80 characters	Item specifics	Commonly reported: 24 free	None for UK private sellers (all categories except Motors); business sellers pay fees
Vinted UK	Commonly reported: 100 characters	Structured fields	Up to 20	None for private sellers (commonly reported; check the price list)
Depop UK	No separate title (one description field)	Up to 5 hashtags	Up to 8	No selling fee; payment processing applies
Etsy	140 characters	13 tags, 20 characters each	Up to 20	Listing, 6.5% transaction and processing fees
Amazon UK	75 characters (non-media, from 27 July 2026)	Backend search terms	Check help pages	Plan fee plus referral fee by category
TikTok Shop UK	At least 15 characters	Not applicable	Up to 9	9% commission (inclusive of VAT)

eBay UK

What	Rule
Title	80 characters. Most important words first (brand, item type, model, size, colour)
Item specifics	Fill in all that apply: they power filtered search. Values commonly reported as up to 65 characters
Photos	Must show the actual item. No stock photos for used items. No added text, borders or watermarks (eBay's Picture policy)
Private seller fees	UK private sellers pay no final value fee and no regulatory operating fee in all categories except Motors. 300 free listings a month. Fees apply to optional upgrades and overseas delivery
Buyer Protection fee	Paid by the buyer on private sellers' items, not taken from your payout. Current tiers: check the help page
Business seller fees	Final value fee by category, a per-order fee and a regulatory operating fee, plus VAT on fees. Rates changed in early 2026
Key rules	Describe the item accurately. No unrelated brand names or keyword spam (search and browse manipulation policy). No counterfeits. Keep communication and payment on eBay

- Private seller fees: <https://www.ebay.co.uk/help/selling/fees-credits-invoices/fees-private-sellers-activated-managed-payments?id=4822>
- Business seller fees: <https://www.ebay.co.uk/help/selling/fees-credits-invoices/fees-business-sellers-activated-managed-payments?id=4809>
- Buyer Protection fee: <https://www.ebay.co.uk/help/buying/paying-items/buyer-protection-fee?id=5594>
- Search and browse manipulation policy: <https://www.ebay.co.uk/help/policies/listing-policies/search-browse-manipulation-policy?id=4255>

Vinted UK

What	Rule
Title and description	No official limits found (title commonly reported as 100 characters). Include measurements, material and every flaw

What	Rule
Fields	Category, brand, size, condition, colour and material instead of free tags. Fill in every one that applies
Photos	Up to 20. Whole item first. Your own photos of its current condition: no stock, found-online or watermarked images, no collages. Show labels on branded items and every defect
Seller fees	Private sellers pay no selling fee (commonly reported). Optional paid promotions cost extra
Buyer Protection fee	Paid by the buyer on every order: a percentage of the price plus a fixed amount, including VAT. Check the price list
Business sellers	Vinted is for private second-hand selling. Traders must use Vinted Pro. Pro sellers must accept returns within 14 days of receipt, and their business details show on their profile
Key rules	Only items allowed by the Catalogue Rules. No counterfeits. Keep payment and messages on Vinted

- Price list: <https://www.vinted.co.uk/pricelist>
- What photos to upload: <https://www.vinted.com/help/48-what-photos-you-should-upload>
- Catalogue Rules: <https://www.vinted.co.uk/catalog-rules>
- Vinted Pro: <https://www.vinted.co.uk/pro>

Depop UK

What	Rule
Description	One combined field, commonly reported as 1,000 characters. Depop advises short, clear descriptions with measurements and signs of wear
Hashtags	Up to 5. Only relevant words, brands and tags
Photos	Up to 8. A short video can be added (check the current video rules in the app)
Fees	No selling fee for UK sellers on GBP sales (for listings created from 20 March 2024). Payment processing is still charged to the seller. UK buyers pay a marketplace fee of up to 5% plus up to £1
Key rules	Describe condition honestly. No lists of unrelated brands. No counterfeits. Keep payment on Depop

- Seller fees: <https://depophelp.zendesk.com/hc/en-gb/articles/360001791127-Seller-fees-and-charges>
- Tips for describing your item: <https://depophelp.zendesk.com/hc/en-gb/articles/360020435158-Tips-for-describing-your-item>

Etsy (UK sellers)

What	Rule
Title and tags	Title 140 characters, clear and readable. Up to 13 tags, each up to 20 characters
Photos and video	Up to 20 photos. Video commonly reported as 1 clip of 5 to 15 seconds
Fees	Listing $0.20 (about £0.15) per listing or renewal, lasting 4 months or until sold. Transaction fee 6.5% including postage. UK payment processing 4% + £0.20. A UK Regulatory Operating Fee applies (check the current rate). Offsite Ads fees apply to orders from Etsy's adverts
Key rules	Handmade, vintage (at least 20 years old; check the current rule) and craft supplies only. If AI was used in creating an item or its design, Etsy's Creativity Standards (commonly reported) ask you to say so in the description and to label the item "Designed by". We found no Etsy rule about using AI to help write listing text: check the Creativity Standards. Selling lists of AI prompts is not allowed. No keyword stuffing, counterfeits or health claims

- Fees and payments policy: <https://www.etsy.com/uk/legal/fees/>
- Payment processing fees: <https://help.etsy.com/hc/en-gb/articles/115015628847-What-are-Payment-Processing-Fees-for-Selling-on-Etsy>
- Creativity Standards: <https://www.etsy.com/legal/creativity>

Amazon UK

What	Rule
Title	75 characters or fewer including spaces in all categories except media, from 27 July 2026. Amazon may shorten over-length titles itself

What	Rule
Item Highlights	New field of up to 125 characters below the title. Only works if the title is 75 characters or fewer
Title rules	No ! $? _ { } ^ ~ unless part of the brand name. The same word no more than twice (small words excepted). No promotional wording
Bullets and search terms	Up to 5 bullets, no prices or delivery details. Backend search terms have a byte limit (commonly reported: 250 bytes); going over can mean the field is ignored. No title words or other brands
Fees	Individual plan £0.75 per item sold, or Professional £25 a month excluding VAT. Plus a referral fee by category, and fulfilment fees if you use FBA
Key rules	Accurate, verifiable product information. No health claims unless allowed for the category. Reference ("was") prices must be genuine

- Selling fees and plans: <https://sell.amazon.co.uk/pricing>
- Title change announcement (July 2026): <https://sellercentral.amazon.co.uk/seller-forums/discussions/t/33f0a42a-17f1-46ef-b110-ba7512a3c881>
- Product title requirements: <https://sellercentral.amazon.co.uk/help/hub/reference/external/GYTR6SYGFA5E3EQC>

TikTok Shop UK

What	Rule
Title	At least 15 characters (maximum: check Seller Center). Accurate and concise. No promotions, shop URL or seller name, no mention of TikTok or other platforms, no symbols
Description	At least 30 words. Claims must be genuine, accurate and verifiable
Images	Up to 9 square images, at least 800 x 800 pixels, at least 3. Colour, main image shows the front, no text or watermarks other than product branding
Commission	Standard 9% (inclusive of VAT). Lower rates can apply to new sellers and some categories. Affiliate commission is extra
Banned claims	No medicines or medical devices. No claims to cure, treat, prevent or relieve any condition, anywhere. No weight loss claims without diet and exercise, no before and after weight images

What	Rule
AI content	Realistic AI images or video must be labelled and must not make the product look different
Key rules	Check the prohibited and restricted products lists. Some categories need approval. Keep orders and payment in TikTok Shop. Discounts must be real

- Product listing guidelines: https://seller-uk.tiktok.com/university/essay?knowledge_id=10008807&identity=1&from_article=1
- Platform commission fee: https://seller-uk.tiktok.com/university/essay?knowledge_id=7753824408913665
- Prohibited products: https://seller-uk.tiktok.com/university/essay?knowledge_id=7753824408307457&lang=en-GB

Beyond the platforms: UK rules worth knowing

We have not verified the detail here. Please read the official pages yourself.

- Selling as a business? Read GOV.UK on accepting returns and giving refunds: <https://www.gov.uk/accepting-returns-and-giving-refunds>
- Platform reporting to HMRC. Being reported does not by itself mean tax is due: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/reporting-rules-for-digital-platforms>
- Trading allowance and tax: <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/tax-free-allowances-on-property-and-trading-income>
- Making and selling your own products? Product safety and labelling rules depend on the product (candles, toys, cosmetics, electricals, children's clothing and items that touch food all have their own). If you post to Northern Ireland or the EU, check whether the EU General Product Safety Regulation (GPSR) applies to you. Search GOV.UK for "product safety for businesses", and use C11 to gather your details.

Last checked: September 2026. Rules change: always check the current rule in the platform's help pages before you list.